Show support for the mayor!

Councillors are urged to observe civic etiquette

by Paul Crompton

A STINGING rebuke over the lack of support for the new mayor of Weymouth and Portland was launched at councillors during their meeting on Thursday.

Aldermen Alan Martindale and Jess Nagel voiced their strong dissatisfaction with the apathy shown by fellow councillors, especially the Conservatives, to themayor, Councillor Paul Kimber.

The pair took the opportunity to speak out during the full Weymouth and Portland Borough Council meeting after poor attendance by councillors at the Mayor's Civic Service.

The service welcomes council representatives from throughout Dorset and is an opportunity to highlight the strength of WPBC.

Former mayor, Mrs

■ THE MAYOR, Councillor Paul Kimber would appreciate support from every political group

Nagel said: "A mayor in term for one year looks for support at civic functions and civic services, it's only once a year after all.

"We were bitterly disappointed at such a poor turnout.

"I'll leave you with this thought. Anyone who steps up to mayoral position will look to their fellow councillors for support. It's called civic etiquette, which has been sadly lacking in this council over the last few years.

"Civic etiquette needs to support the mayor and we feel so strongly about this. In a few years if you [councillors] decide to step into the mayoral post I hope you get the support you look for.

"I do hope our words have not fallen on deaf ears and you better support the mayor when he attends functions."

Councillor Kimber, a Labour member, became mayor on May 26th after serving as a borough councillor since 1982 and as deputy mayor during the last term.

The representative of Underhill Ward is a member of the council's Policy Development Committee, Appeals Committee and the chairman of Port Health Authority.

Councillor Kimber said: "It's something I feel odd commenting on really. I would appreciate support from every political group. Some councillors have been very, very good, if I've been to an engagement in their ward they have been there.

"I don't expect every councillor to turn out for every engagement, but at the mayor's civic service nobody from the Conservatives turned-up.

"The point being made was for each mayor the civic service is the council on show to other councils in Dorset and it was not as well supported as I might have hoped."

RICHARD Horobin volunteers as press officer for Lyme Regis Lifeboat crew.

He has been a journalist since leaving school at 16 and completed his apprenticeship as a trainee reporter on a weekly paper in Berkshire. Richard worked on newspapers in Surrey, Buckinghamshire, Birmingham and Bristol before joining the BBC in 1970.

After 25 years at the BBC, Richard managed the media services department of Hampshire Constabulary and retired six-years-ago before moving to Lyme Regis two-and-half-years-ago.

He is currently busy photographing and reporting on events during Lyme Regis Lifeboat Week.

■ WHAT do you like about living in Lyme Regis?

The beautiful coastline, the delightful harbour, and the friendly people who made moving here such a joy. Oh, and then there are those lovely hills in the town!

■ WHAT would you change about the town if you could?

I would level out those hills. I would also make the timetable for the town bus service simpler to fathom out. I also think it is time to consider some sort of one-way traffic system. How much longer can we tolerate bits being knocked off our buildings?

■ WHY did you decide to get involved with the RNLI?

My only involvement with the RNLI before moving to Lyme Regis was through my work as a journalist. I went to an RNLI Guild meeting where it was mentioned that Lyme needed a press officer. Someone on my table more or less put my hand up for me.

■ WHY is it important that people support Lifeboat Week?

It is vital that people support Lifeboat Week. The RNLI is a charity with no help from the government and every penny donated helps to keep our crews and the boats ready to go to sea to save lives.

■ WHAT is your favourite Lifeboat Week event?

It has to be the bathtub race. But bathtubs are becoming rather sophisticated as anyone who saw Sunday's event will testify. I must say I had a little sympathy for the traditional bathtub crews, but it was great fun and enjoyed by thousands.

■ DO you think it is important that more young people join the lifeboat crew?

It is crucial that we encourage youngsters to join the crew. In Lyme Regis there is a tremendous will to promote the volunteer ethic to young people. We have three teenagers who have just qualified as sea-going crew and half a dozen more youngsters are working on their Duke of Edinburgh Award Scheme with the lifeboat crew.

■ WHAT are your other personal interests and hobbies?

I am a keen non-league football fan and have watched

Lyme Regis a few times. My main allegiance is still to Eastleigh FC in Hampshire, near where I used to live. I enjoy involvement with the U3A in Lyme Regis and I am press officer for the group trying to restore the Three Cups as a hotel. I also do a couple of shifts a month in the lifeboat shop at the harbour.

■ WHAT did you do at the BBC?

I joined the BBC in 1970 when the Pebble Mill studios were opened in Birmingham. I was a newsroom journalist, and later became producer of the nightly news programme Midlands Today. In 1980 I moved to Southampton to become Editor of BBC South and was responsible for the television news output for that region.

■ WHAT would you do if you won the lottery?

I would re-build the Three Cups Hotel if Palmers would sell it to me, provide a new lifeboat for the town, and have my own personal car parking space (maybe two) right in the centre of town.

■ WHAT three items would you like if you were stranded on a desert island?

A radio so that I could listen to Sounds of the Sixties on Saturday mornings, a powerful pair of binoculars to look out for ships and a box of matches.

■ WHICH three people would you invite to your ideal dinner party?

Ken Dodd. I met him once and my sides are still splitting. Sir Bobby Charlton because in those days it really was a beautiful game, and Sir Ian Botham.

Combining council staff will make savings but cost jobs

THE biggest shake-up in local government for 35 years will result in major job losses.

Around 70 jobs will be lost as the staff of Weymouth and Portland Borough Council combine with West Dorset District Council. A financial squeeze has been put on Weymouth to save up to £8.5 million over the next five years.

Staff from both councils will soon merge to the detriment of a number of posts as job roles are integrated.

A WPBC spokesman said although there would be cuts it was to early to know the details about where job cuts will be made and nothing had yet been earmarked.

West Dorset District Council had previously voted in favour of the move, which was sanctioned by a unanimous decision

by Paul Crompton

by Weymouth and Portland councillors during their full meeting.

The joint workforce would deliver services to 162,000 residents, over 6,100 businesses and the millions of visitors to the areas governed by both councils.

Councillors heard how the move, which has not been attempted anywhere else in the country, would protect and improve services by offering a single officer structure for both councils, including one chief executive and one management team instead of the current two.

WPBC leader and Corporate Affairs and Continuous Improvement Brief holder, Councillor Geoff Petherick said: "Local government is facing huge financial presures, which could lead to devastating cuts in service. Although we will still face some difficult choices, by sharing our officer structures across two councils, we can make significant savings and efficiencies that can be used to help protect vital services and make improvements where needed.

"This is a major opportunity for us to actually respond to enormous change that the prime minister has mentioned.

"The process offers significant benefits and greater resilience and puts us in a position where we can change services around and improve quality of those services also have economic benefits."

Both councils have experience of successfully working together, through their pioneering Revenues & Benefits Partnership, where they have improved services and saved £200,000 each year making a total saving of £1,000,000 since the partnership began.

Councillor Kevin Hodder said: "On the business case we will make savings. We must take the leap of faith and step forward for all the right reasons for the people of Weymouth and Portland because it is likely to be a one-way step and we have to make sure we get it 100 per cent right."

A council statement said that in preparing the business case they had given consideration as to how the partnership fitted into wider arrangements for collaboration with other public sector providers across Dorset, and with Bournemouth and Poole, with the aim being to ensure nothing prejudices further wider collaboration in the medium to long term.

Works on Littlemoor Road

DRIVERS will not be able to use Littlemoor Road, Weymouth, as a through route this weekend because essential drainage works are being carried out for the town's relief road.

Littlemoor Road will be cut near Gould's Garden Centre from 6.30pm tomorrow (Friday) and 7am on Monday, August 2nd, but the garden centre and other businesses will be open as usual.

Residents wishing to access the garden centre will have to approach it from the Preston direction and people wishing to visit Somerfield and neighbouring businesses will need to approach it from the Dorchester Road end of Littlemoor Road.

Access to all properties on Louviers Road will be from the Dorchester Road end of Littlemoor Road.

The drainage works require a three-metre deep trench to be dug under the new Littlemoor Road, where it crosses the path of the existing one.

Weymouth Relief Road project manager Matthew Piles said: "Closing Littlemoor Road to through traffic for this short period of time will be less disruptive than if we completed this drainage work under temporary traffic signals as they would need to be in place for at least a week.

"The pipe being laid has to go under a fragile water-main and it would be at greater risk of rupturing if vehicles were allowed to drive over it during the work."

Provisions will be made so that pedestrians and cyclists can pass through the works area.

Working hours will be 6.30pm to around 9pm tomorrow, 7.30am-7.30pm on Saturday, July 31 and from 7.30am-7.30pm on Sunday, August 1.

Littlemoor Road is scheduled to be reopened to through traffic by 7am on Monday, August 2nd.

Brewers Quay to be transformed

A MAJOR multi-million pound redevelopment is being planned for Weymouth's shopping village at Brewers Quay.

The former Victorian brewery site is being transformed as part of a change of ownership that hopes to see the site sensitively converted into an up-market complex housing a hotel, specialist retail outlets, restaurants, bars and apartments subject to planning permission being granted.

Serious investment will enable much of the building's fabric to be refurbished and upgraded to retain its heritage features while Weymouth Museum, with its extensive collection of local historical artefacts, will be given permanent residence in the new facilities along with a dedicated museum shop and café.

A Brewers Quay spokesman said: "This will be a multi-million pound redevelopment without a doubt and we are working with Weymouth and Portland council's listed building experts because this is a historic site which needs to be preserved.

"We are aiming for a 90-room hotel and new facilities for the museum in a specially allocated space complete with a café terrace area and a shop.

"We also plan a range of retail units which will be available for new and existing tenants.

"There will also be a range of restaurants and bars together with eight private apartments and eight holiday-let apartments, an exhibition space available for rent and perhaps a health and fitness centre."

The new complex will not only deliver increased employment for the area but will transform a key part of Weymouth by delivering top facilities in time for the 2012 Olympics.

A public exhibition of outline proposals for the scheme goes on view at Brewers Quay from Thursday, August 5th-Saturday, August 7th when local residents and businesses can see and comment on the scheme before a detailed planning application is submitted in a few weeks time.

If planners back the development then work will start early in 2011.

Police seek gang of girls following violent attack

DETECTIVES are searching for a gang of girls in connection with the brutal attack on Portland which left a teenager needing urgent hospital treatment.

Violence erupted as teenage revellers congregated at a late-night party near the Naval Cemetery, leaving 17 year-old Wyke Regis man with a cracked jaw, stitches and a punctured eye-lid.

An 18-year-old Portland youth was arrested on Wednesday, July 21st, following a police investigation and has been released on bail while enquiries continue.

Detectives are now hunting the gang of girls who were seen talking to the victim at the time of the attack to try and establish the cause of the crime.

Detective Constable Ed Meanwell, of Weymouth CID, said: "There was a well-publicised party taking place near the Naval Cemetery last Friday and there were many people in and around this area at the time of this incident.

"The victim was allegedly struck to the face and I understand that this caused him to fall to the ground.

"I believe that a group of girls were stood nearby the victim at the time of this incident and that one of these girls may have spoken with the victim shortly after he sustained his injuries - it may be that these girls can help me find out exactly what happened.

"I am appealing for anyone who witnessed this incident, and anyone with any information about those involved, to contact me urgently.

"Any information, no matter how small or insignificant you believe it to be, could help me with this investigation."

A recent show of solidarity against the violence on Portland saw around 50 islanders attend a meeting with police to discuss the situation which has left many residents feeling intimidated.

Witnesses and anyone with information on the incident at 11.30pm on Friday, July 16th should call police on 01305 222222.

Freedom walkers

A GROUP of supporters of the MV Freedom boat, which operates a unique for the benefit and enjoyment of people who suffer with a disability, have learning difficulties, or the elderly, took part in a 14.5 miles sponsored walk around Portland last weekend.

The intrepid fundraisers met at 9 am and set off up the Merchants Incline to the rear of the Verne, then on to the Bill, back through Southwell, on to Priory Corner, through Fortuneswell, then back to the academy along the Rodwell Trail, finishing at the Kings Arms. The last person to finish arrived at 6.30pm. The group are pictured before they set off.

Take the tap water taste test

THIRSTY residents are being dared to take a tap water challenge and re-discover the taste of clean, fresh tap water.

Dorset councils are calling for local people to turn back to the tap as part of a new campaign to help save money, waste and energy.

Recycling teams will be out and about making a splash at events in Weymouth, Portland and the west of the county promoting the benefits of ditching bottled water in favour of filling up from the tap. Most people cannot taste the difference between bottled and tap water, so local residents are being challenged to see whether they can. Those that guess correctly could receive a free refillable water bottle.

The campaign by Dorset Reduction and Recycling Group is designed to help promote reduce, reuse and recycling messages to young people and families across the county throughout July and August.

Dorset reduction and recycling group chairman

Marten Gregory said: "People lead busy lifestyles and so it's easy to grab a bottle of water when you're on the go, but tap water tastes just as good and it's much better for the environment. It's safe, has a low carbon footprint and generates no packaging waste.

"It is also very cheap - less than a penny per litre

- so at a time when people may be looking to tighten their purse strings, it makes sense to save money and to reduce the carbon footprint by choosing tap over bottled water.

"So whether on the beach, playing sport or enjoying a barbie this summer, we're encouraging residents to quench their thirst by using a refillable water bottle. It is also handy to keep a jug of tap water chilling in the fridge for warm summer days."

Tap water challenge roadshows will be at the East Gardens summer fete on Portland on August 14th from 10am-4pm and at Budmouth Leisure Centre, Weymouth, on August 24th from 2-6pm.

Children's centre signs up 500th user

BROADMAYNE Sure Start Children's Centre has registered more than 500 parents and children to receive free support.

The project, behind Broadmayne First School in Knighton Lane, is managed by Barnardo's South West on behalf of Dorset County Council.

It offers links to parenting advice and support, childminding, health services, training and employment.

Broadmayne Sure Start Children's Centre includes offices, meeting rooms, a creche, kitchen and outdoor play area.

It opened in 2008 and now forms part of a cluster of projects which also cover Piddle Valley and Sherborne.

Barnardo's team leader Julia Lake said: "We have now registered more than 500 parents and children - which is a large number for such a small area - but we know there are many more people who could benefit from our help.

"We provide a wide range of activities throughout the week, bringing local agencies and voluntary groups together to provide a 'one-stop-shop' for all kinds of free information and advice.

"This includes play sessions, first aid training, toy hire, arts and crafts, speech and language therapy, occupational therapy and baby massage.

"Children's centres are the perfect example of how Barnardo's has moved with the times to adapt and evolve to face modern challenges, but always remaining true to our purpose of turning young lives around."

Helping hand for weary travellers

AMID Weymouth's traffic hell stands a beacon of hope for frazzled travellers with the introduction of a 'I Love Bus, Helping Hand' scheme.

The pilot scheme by the First transport company hopes to make bus travel easier and less stressful by providing a dedicated staff member handing out advice and guidance to travellers.

If successful the trial could be rolled out across the country.

The concept involves having First staff located at the King's Statue, holiday parks and meeting inbound trains.

It coincides with the school summer holidays and the expected increase in visitors, who will have to negotiate the endless road works being carried out in the borough.

It also follows the recent move of the Tourist Information Centre from the King's Statue area to the Weymouth Pavilion.

Phil Dodds, is fronting the scheme and can be found Weymouth's streets kitted out in a distinctive uniform, featuring the 'I Love Bus, Helping Hand' logo, and armed with an internet enabled phone.

by Paul Crompton

Phil said: "I am very excited to have this new role and look forward to being able to help lots of people. I love buses and look forward to being able to share my knowledge and passion for public transport with visitors to the area. I holidayed in Weymouth a lot when I was younger and loved every minute of it, so I feel well equipped to help other people, and families, make the most of a break here."

Marc Reddy, managing director of First Hampshire and Dorset said the scheme was about enabling visitors to the area to get out and about more easily.

"There are some great places to go locally by bus. With the Jurassic Coast on our doorstep, a wealth of beautiful beaches and picturesque villages to visit, and a number of fantastic tourist attractions such as Portland Castle all accessible by bus, visitors really do have a world of choices," he said.

"Phil will be on hand to help them make the best decisions, provide timetable information, and even answer their queries while they're on the move via the power of Twitter."

The scheme has been welcomed by Christine James, Brief Holder for Transport and Infrastructure, who said it was a really exciting new project and looked forward to seeing the scheme being put into action out and about in the Borough.

Phil will be available Tuesday – Saturday between 10am and 6pm with customers able to follow and interact with him on Twitter at @firstdorset, and via Facebook at www.facebook.com/SearchFirstDorset.

■ PILLAR OF INFORMATION: Human help is on hand for weary travellers in the shape of Phil Dodds, during the 'I Love Bus, Helping Hand' pilot scheme.

■ HELP IS AT HAND: Weymouth and Portland Mayor Paul Kimber and members of Weymouth Samaritans went the charity's special car on its arrival in Weymouth.

Support for Samaritans

A SPECIAL car to help advertise the Samaritans charity being open all day every day has put the message across in Weymouth.

The car, bought by Samaritans in the Midlands, made a colourful arrival from Yeovil and was greeted by Weymouth and Portland Mayor Paul Kimber and members of Weymouth Samaritans.

Director Sara said: "This is an ambitious to take the car to as many places as possible to show that Samaritans is always available to anyone who is in an emotional crisis.

"Volunteers in Weymouth deal with more than 16,000 phone calls, emails or personal visits from people needing our help every year.

"We never close, we never turn anybody away and we always try to help anyone who needs us."

Mr Kimber said: "This is a prominent way of advertising a very worthy cause.

"Weymouth owes a big debt of gratitude to the Samaritans and anything to help them has to be supported."

Wyke Festival raises £7,000 for Julia's House

■ Weymouth and Portland Mayor Paul Kimber and celebrity chef Leslie Waters officially open Wyke Regis beer and Food Festival

■ SARAH smith, Helen Clark and Darren Smith

by Paul Crompton

THIRSTY visitors downed 5,000 pints of cider and beer as they soaked up the sun and atmosphere of this year's Wyke Regis Beer and Food Festival.

Only in its second year, the festival's organisers said numbers were 50 per cent up from last year and they are hopeful of reaching a £7,000 profit for Julia's House Hospice.

The event proved so popular with drinkers they ran out of Pimm's – of which 240 litres were guzzled.

The celebration of the region's food and drink even received a seal of approval from celebrity chef Lesley Waters, who asked to come back next year with fellow Julia's House patron, actor Martin Clunes.

Over 2,000 people attended the event run by Fermoy's Garden Centre & Farm Shop, who also run Value House where the event is held.

Along with cookery demonstrations, there were over 40 real ales and ciders and great music from local band Celtic Connection who entertained the crowds during the Saturday afternoon.

Over 30 local food and craft stalls took part alongside lots of family entertainment, including a Harley Davidson bike rally, jazz band and majorettes.

Company Development Manager at Fermoy's, Sarah Dumont said: "There were lots of holiday makers and people who specifically came down, as well as all the locals and they couldn't believe the atmosphere, a few people said it had a 70s retro feel."

"It was a real family event. There was beer for the dads, and lots of things to keep the rest of the family occupied, which helped with the community feel of the weekend."

College students join MEMO Project

STUDENTS from Royal Manor Arts College on Portland have been carving out a permanent record of their talents.

They jumped at a chance to join a stone carving residency held by the MEMO Project with stone sculptors Seb Brooke, Joanna

by Harry Walton

Szuwalska and Roy Pepperell together with school staff. The MEMO Project is an educational charity dedicated to building a memorial on the Isle of Portland to species being lost across the world.

During the residency Joanna also continued with her carving of the endangered Kenyan Mountain Bongo whilst Seb was carving a Great Auk, a seabird which is now extinct. Remains of a Great Auk were recently found in excavations of the school's playing fields at Weston Road.

More than 30 pupils were involved with doing their own carvings in Portland stone and they were joined by headteacher Paul Green, RMAC staff and parents.

One pupil brought along and used his grandfather's stone carving tools.

MEMO thanked the College for hosting the event, Weymouth and Portland Partnership for providing funding and all those who took part.

It is hoped to hold a similar event next year and in the meantime work continues to progress the project for the permanent monument. Further consultations will be carried out later in the year.

Portland cardio group jokes over World Cup

STORM clouds gathering after England's awful World Cup game against the USA turned out to have a silver lining for a Portland heart group.

Regulars at the island's Clifton Hotel saw goalkeeper Rob Green's mistake which led to the USA equalizing and had an impromptu whip round to send a colleague out as a replacement keeper to spare manager Fabio Capello's blushes.

But there was humour in their choice of Dave Hall to do a better job than the hapless Green because previous health problems meant Dave was the least mobile of them!

The cardio group meets at Osprey Leisure Centre whose general manager Nigel Williams said: "The landlord kindly pledged to match whatever money the regulars had contributed and, as a result, Dave was able to donate a new rebounder and many sets of dumbbells for his friends who also attend the rehab and fitness group here which is run by a registered charity."

Anyone wishing to join in with the group's fun and activities every Tuesday and Thursday should contact the Centre on 01305-824378.

Borders bloom in Greenhill Gardens

SEVEN flowerbeds have been brought back to colourful life in Greenhill Gardens, Weymouth.

The work has been carried out by the Friends of Greenhill Gardens using money raised by the group.

They provided £500 worth of shrubs to plant up crescent shaped beds that lie in front of the chalets at the southern end of the gardens.

Among shrubs chosen were escallonias, hebes, spireas and euonymus, which have created high impact colourful displays.

Council parks staff prepared the beds, laid a weed suppressant membrane and, once planted, the beds were finished off with white stone chippings to really set the plants off.

Group chairman Barbara Dubben said: "FOGG helped plant up two redundant flowerbeds back in 2007 which continue to look incredibly eye-catching and which are a real credit to the group."

"With this in mind and following a very generous donation, FOGG has been able to provide even more shrubs to plant up a number of flowerbeds that overlook the Esplanade."

"The group wishes to thank the generous donor who enabled this project to come to fruition."

Anyone who would like to get involved in the group should contact 01305-838297.

Six charity jumble

SIX different multiple animal charities benefitted when a jumble sale was held at Willowbed Hall, Chickerell.

Visitors were able to browse clothes and footwear, books, bric-a-brac, toys, DVDs, plants, videos, CDs, jewellery and other stalls.

Organiser Samantha Brook was delighted at the success of the event and said: "We were given an absolute mountain of stuff and people were queueing to get in and buy it."

"All the causes are good ones to help cats, dogs and horses and I hope we have done really well."

Playgarden big picnic

BOUNCING, face painting and eating tasty food took place when Weymouth's Chapelhay Community Playgarden held a big picnic.

Other attractions included making models and musical instruments from junk, flag making and artwork to make insects and flowers for a collage.

Organiser Clare Sutton said: "I am absolutely delighted because more than 100 children, mums and dads turned up."

"It was a great day which we hope to hold again next year."

Westfield students head for the capital

STAFF with students outside the Royal Festival Hall.

LONDON lights beckoned when a group from Westfield Arts College in Weymouth tackled a trip to the capital including the Royal Festival Hall.

Students spent a week visiting the major Olympic venues, sampling the Arts for the Cultural Olympiad and examining the green agenda of the build.

One fact that emerged was that a segment of the main stand has been constructed with left over gas pipes! All contractors are obliged to post details of spare materials that they have for others to use and use them they must.

Other highlights of the week were a trip to Drury Lane Theatre for 'Oliver', Covent Garden for street entertainment and the whole experience of the South Bank where they saw professional television programmes being filmed which helped students with their The Planning, Development and Legacy of the 2012 Olympics for their 'Get Real' 2012 project.

National award for baby swimming classes

A COMPANY with links to west Dorset has topped a customer poll to win a prestigious country-wide award for the third time running.

Water Babies, who run classes in Weymouth and Dorchester, won the main "Best National Baby & Toddler Development Activity" in the prestigious "What's On 4 2010" awards.

The UK firm fought off over 2,500 other nominations to take the top prizes with the majority of more than 27,000 votes cast.

Water Babies Steve Tolley said: "We're just overwhelmed by the amazing response of all our clients in voting for us.

"To have won this national award - again - totally reflects on the dedication of the whole Water Babies team.

"As parents ourselves, we appreciate that this is one of the most magical times in people's lives, so work incredibly hard to enhance it. We're so grateful to all our fantastic clients for taking the time to nominate and vote for us."

Water Babies' teaches water confidence and safety techniques from birth with progressive training, teaching life saving skills such as turning onto their backs or swimming to the nearest solid object.

Babies natural reflex is to instinctively hold their breath when submerged, however, the Water Babies course teaches them to control their breathing negating the risk of water inhalation.

Most will happily be swimming distances underwater by about 30 months, then naturally start swimming on the surface as their strength increases

Steve said: "It is now widely recognised that the first year of a baby's life is crucial in terms of its development, with vital pathways in the brain continually forming. The more stimulation you can give your baby, the more these pathways will grow, leading to stronger emotional, physical and mental development.

"Within the last two years, seven of our children nationally saved themselves from drowning - despite three of them being only two."

Steve and Jo Tolley have been running Water Babies classes since 2008 and, together with a team of three, now teaches over 500 babies and children every week.

The awards programme, supported by Prima Baby & Pregnancy magazine, is now in its fourth year and celebrates the best children's activities across the UK, as nominated and voted for by parents

AS I SEE IT ...

by Geoff Treleven

Confession is good

I WAS driving slowly through a busy town. As I passed a stationary bus, a young lady dashed out in front of the bus to run across the road. Fortunately, we both reacted quickly and there was no accident. But how can we stop people doing stupid things?

I should admit there have been many occasions when, on reflection, I have realised that my own actions have been unwise to say the least. How I wish I could always get things right first time!

Regarding road accidents; driver error is not easily admitted. And in these modern days, a typical excuse for a grossly inaccurate bill is to blame the computer – completely overlooking human error.

Computer programs do have some prohibitions but errors are still possible. When I asked why they were not made completely idiot proof, I was told there are more ways of doing things wrong than doing things right. That is quite an observation!

When we are willing to admit our own failures rather than blaming others, there is a wonderful scriptural promise. "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness." (1 John 1:9)

Student ambassadors report from China

News from Weymouth College

A GROUP of six student ambassadors from Weymouth College travelled to China to find out more about the culture and the inside stories of the staging of the 2008 Olympic Games and how they could relate that to the sailing events being held in Weymouth and Portland during the 2012 Games. These are their reports:

● Getting to China by Kieran Bosomworth

We knew our visit to China would highlight the differences between our two cultures but it could even be seen in our flights and the airports we passed through.

For instance, the first flight took nine hours which is totally different to the normal flight times back in Europe and as a result felt really long. The flight also served food that was totally different to the normal in-flight food that we are used to. On the first flight the first thing that woke me up to the Chinese way of life was (strangely) the tea, it tasted so much more natural and fresher than the PG Tips I was used to back in the UK.

When the flight landed in Beijing, the culture of the city and country hits you like a wall. Firstly, the airport was mind-bendingly massive and modern, with huge widescreens round every corner, modern architecture implemented to every wall and stunning glass windows layering the buildings around the airport. All areas of the airport were impeccably clean and litter free.

● Qingdao's Sailing Venue by Jamie Richards

In 2008 the Chinese city of Qingdao hosted the Olympic and Paralympic sailing events, the same events Weymouth and Portland sailing academy will host in 2012. The academy itself is not greatly different from ours apart from the fact that, like most comparable venues in China, it is much bigger.

However, what the Weymouth & Portland National Sailing Academy (WPNSA) lacks in size, it makes up for in wind conditions and visibility.

What was most interesting to see is how the academy has changed since 2008 and what legacy it has left. It has now become an Olympic museum which seemed a shame to allow such an incredible venue to only be used for such a short time and this is how, I hope, WPNSA will differ from the Qingdao International Sailing Academy and will instead prosper following the 2012 Olympic and Paralympic games.

● Beijing Huijia University by Maria Lochrie

Once we were back in Beijing we visited Beijing Huijia University and spoke to three students who volunteered during the 2008 Games. They told us that 70 per cent of Games-time volunteers were young people in 2008 and that two years on 50 per cent of those still regularly volunteer in their community.

Katy, one of the volunteers said: "Trying may not make you a winner but not trying will definitely make you a loser." It made us realise that if we don't take this opportunity now to get involved in the 2012 Olympic & Paralympic Games then we could be waiting a long time for the next opportunity.

We also got the chance to speak to a class of students who were too young to volunteer in 2008 and whilst they didn't have a volunteering experience to talk to us about it was clear that they were glad that they could now benefit from all the new opportunities and facilities the 2008 Games brought to their country.

● Tiananmen Square by Lilly Markwell

As Young Ambassadors from Weymouth & Portland, it was amazing for us to experience one of the most traditional events in China, the raising of the flag at Tiananmen Square. Every morning the flag is raised at dawn and thousands of people were there with us; Chinese families who visit every day and our first glimpses of new China, their young people.

This really interested me as young people were actively encouraged to join in with this daily event and did so with pride.

The 2008 Beijing Olympic video was still playing on big screens in Tiananmen Square and everywhere we went in China the Olympic spirit was still very much alive; the Chinese are still very proud of themselves and what they achieved as a country. This is a memory I will never forget because it showed the immense unifying culture of China, how they work together to make things happen and it proved that mixing tradition and new technology

(the flag and the big screens) can work really well, so every generation can enjoy the moment.

Six more students will get a chance to visit China this November as the Young Ambassadors scheme widens to include students from Budmouth Technology College

If you will be under 18 years old on 30th September 2010 and will be studying at Weymouth College or Budmouth Technology College then you can register an interest in joining the Young Ambassadors scheme by visiting reception.

WEYMOUTH College engineering students received their NVQ Level 2 Awards after work placements

Engineering students gain their NVQs

WEYMOUTH College engineering students are celebrating an outstanding set of results as part of the Young Apprenticeship course run in conjunction with local schools and industry across the Weymouth, Portland and West Dorset Region.

All 16 students that started the scheme in September 2009 have gained their NVQ Level 2 Award.

The Young Apprenticeship programme was introduced as a government initiative to create a first-class vocational scheme that would offer young people aged 14 to 16 the opportunity to study for an NVQ Level 2 qualification whilst undertaking work placements within local engineering companies, giving each student the chance to gain a taste of 'real life' extended work placements within the manufacturing industry.

The unique scheme links schools, colleges and local manufacturing organisations in a partnership that provides direct experience of using industry-standard machinery and equipment, whilst developing the social skills needed in the workplace.

Weymouth College tutor Keith Lawson said: "The group members showed great commitment to the scheme undertaking their work placements during their holiday periods and working an 'extended' day at College to complete the qualification."

Student Vickii McGrady, 16, said: "I've really enjoyed the course and the teaching's really good. I hope to come back to college to do my A Levels and then go on to be in the Navy."

Children learn new skills in robotics challenge

Becca Elliot and Charlie Wilson are presented their certificate by Sue Moore

WEYMOUTH College hosted the Inter-School Robotics Challenge for boys and girls in Years 8 and 9.

Students had the opportunity to represent their schools, Royal Manor Arts College and Budmouth Technology College, in the competition funded by the AimHigher programme.

Pupils were divided into small groups and were asked to design, build and programme a robot, which had to achieve a number of set tasks which reflect real life.

Brian Duke from AimHigher said: "The purpose of the day is to introduce the students to engineering technology, something they wouldn't normally consider, and begin to teach them the basics."

Principal of Weymouth College and chairman of AimHigher, Sue Moore, presented the winning team with certificates and a trophy.

The winning team for the boys challenge was Connor Wells, Christian Burges and Eli Cranny, and the girls challenge winners were Becca Elliot and Charlie Wilson, both from Royal Manor Arts College.

Becca and Charlie said: "The day has been really enjoyable, it's been stressful at times but really rewarding. It's improved our teamwork and made us better friends!"

Junior chefs cook successful lunch for parents

WEYMOUTH College students are well on their way to becoming culinary experts after completing a 10-week Junior Chefs Academy course.

The Saturday morning course culminated last week-end with a catering extravaganza. The 13 junior chefs invited their parents to the college's Cygnets restaurant for lunch and served spaghetti bolognese and apple pie with custard.

As the graduates prepared lunch their guests could watch on the TV link up system.

Lunch was followed by an awards ceremony where each junior chef was given a certificate by Janine Hodson, programme area manager for tourism and hospitality.

Special thanks was given to the Daniel Symonds & Mary Anne Pope Charitable Trust and the Savoy Educational Trust for sponsoring and supporting the Junior Chefs Academy.

Some of the graduates will be starting a Young Apprenticeship programme in September and will be

Bruiser - a large addition to sea life ocean tank

ONE OF the sea's most fearsome creatures has taken his residency at Weymouth Sea Life Park after growing too large for his previous home.

At six feet and 90 kilos, Bruiser the nurse shark had got too big for his tank at Chessington Sea Life Centre after growing 36 inches in just two-and-a-half years.

The star attraction has joined resident black-tipped reef sharks, a beautiful zebra shark and Florida green turtles in a much bigger tropical ocean tank at Weymouth after struggles to manoeuvre through the rock and coral theming of the previous tank.

Weymouth displays supervisor Fiona Smith said: "If he were allowed to grow any bigger he would soon be demolishing the theming just with his sheer weight and bulk."

"Bruiser is a cheeky character who likes to muscle in at feeding time, so his keepers didn't anticipate any difficulty steering him over a stretcher to lift him from the tank at Chessington.

"He will soon be the biggest shark we've ever had. We're excited about his arrival and sure he will enjoy life in his more spacious new surrounds."

Nurse sharks are a type of 'carpet shark' - so called for their fondness for lying motionless on the seabed using their powerful neck muscles to pump water through their gills.

Though not commercially fished, they are sometimes taken for their tough leathery skin, for the oil from their livers and for their flesh, which is usually eaten raw and salted.

Rare birds breed in Weymouth

MARSH harriers, magnificent birds of prey that are rarer than golden eagles, have successfully reared young in the middle of Weymouth for the second year running.

Two juvenile birds were spotted flying near their nest site at the RSPB-managed Lodmoor nature reserve off Preston Beach Road last week.

The breeding success comes despite fears that, without action to protect them, the adult birds would be distressed by nearby works on the multi-million pound relief road and possibly even abandon the nest.

Weymouth Wetlands reserves manager Nick Tomlinson said: "It's fantastic news to have these spectacular birds and their new family back in our midst."

"There are only a little over 350 breeding females in the country and Weymouth is one of only three breeding sites in the south west."

"As these birds and their breeding sites are protected by law, we told Dorset County Council that the pair were there and held long negotiations with them and road builders Skanska."

"Following our guidance, they set up an exclusion zone to give the birds some breathing space and they made sure that any work generating loud noise or vibrations stopped until the young had fledged. RSPB staff and volunteers also monitored the nest site and watched the birds for any signs of distress caused by the road building."

"The situation was far from ideal but happily it appears that everyone's efforts have paid off."

A pair of marsh harriers successfully raised three young at Weymouth Wetlands' Radipole Lake reserve last year - the first to do so in Dorset for 50 years - and they became one of the country's most urban breeding pairs. It is thought that the male from last year set up the new nest.

Nick said: "We now have at least two new juveniles which is great news for the survival of this beautiful and rare bird of prey as well as great news for the RSPB reserves in Weymouth and for the town itself."

"We really hope that these birds will become a permanent feature of the Weymouth Wetlands and we are already in conversation with the county council to ensure the best possible measures are put in place to safeguard the site and its wildlife, making sure that future disturbance is prevented."

County natural environment manager Phil Sterling said: "These are very beautiful birds and to see them hunting over the reedbeds makes all the effort that was expended to protect them worth while."

Your chance to cook-off with Dorset's top chefs...

DO you love cooking for family and friends and experimenting with new recipes? Maybe you dream of winning Masterchef or winning a Michelin star. If you really know your onions and you're passionate about great food, how would you like to cook with two of Dorset's finest chefs at the Dorset County Show on 5th September?

We're offering one lucky reader the opportunity to be sous chef with Mat Follas, of The Wild Garlic, Beaminstre www.thewildgarlic.co.uk and Russell Brown, from Sienna in Dorchester www.siennarestaurant.co.uk.

Mat and Russell will go head to head in a celebrity chef cook-off, each vying to wow the crowd with their individual take on a variety of dishes. As sous chef, our winner will help each chef to prepare his dish, whilst picking up masses of inspiration, techniques and delicious tastings along the way.

Mat Follas has quickly established his reputation as one of our most talented chefs, having won Masterchef in 2009. Mat specialises in using wild produce and local seasonal ingredients. Russell Brown recently won a Michelin star for his seasonally inspired cuisine, characterised by his use of the finest available ingredients.

To enter, please send us your favourite recipe (starter, main or pudding) and tell us in 50 words what you'd bring to the table in terms of your skills and enthusiasm at the cook-off. Send your entry to Dorset County Show Cook Off, View From Newspapers, Unit 3, St Michael's Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset DT7 3DB or email pemedia@pemedia.co.uk. Closing date is 27th August. A winner will be selected via telephone interview from a shortlist. The editor's decision is final.

Charmouth Fayre

Sunday,
August 1st 2010

Plenty to do for all the family at village's event of the year

CHARMOUTH residents are looking forward to the biggest event of their calendar, the annual village fayre, this Sunday, August 1st.

The 19th Charmouth Fayre will start at 1.30pm with a fancy dress parade from The Court on The Street, opposite the Royal Oak, to the playing fields in Barrs Lane.

The fayre will then be officially opened and fancy dress entries will be judged with categories including individuals and pairs or groups. Everyone is invited to join in.

The Karizma Majorettes from Axminster will perform at 2.15pm, followed by the Dorset Police Dog Display Team at 3pm.

Everyone will then have a chance to show off their pooches for 50 pence each in a family dog show with 12 categories, including best puppy, best veteran dog and waggiest tail, at 3.45pm.

The entertainment will continue throughout the afternoon with Dr Turbeville's Morris Men from Crewkerne performing at 3.30pm and a tug of war competition at 4pm.

The Ottery St Mary Silver Band will also be playing at the fayre and Charmouth Bowls Club will be staging a competition. Children will be entertained by a show from the Puppetree Company, and the Magical Moon magician will be wowing crowds all day with his special tricks.

There will also be a display by the Mini Car Club and a chance to meet the local fire brigade and their engine.

Other fun stalls and traditional games will include hoopla, football games, crockery smash, a tombola, bottle stall, coconut shy, cake stall, skittle alley, face painting, a bouncy castle and raffle with cash prizes.

A Party in the Park will be held in the evening with live music from indie rock covers band Mice With Glasses - a change to the fayre's usual entertainment, which organisers hope party-goers will enjoy.

Gates will re-open at 7pm for the evening party with barbecue and licensed bar. Entrance fee for adults costs £1.50, which covers the barbecue, and children under 15 years get in free of charge.

The evening of entertainment will be topped off with a grand firework display at 10.30pm.

Organiser Anthea Gillings said: "We hope everyone comes along and has a good time. We would like to say thank you for all the support and help we receive."

Weymouth Matters

A personal View by HARRY WALTON

A real crowd pleasing sight in the harbour

SEEING fish cruising through the waters of the Inner Harbour is quite a common sight.

But people strolling over Westham Bridge in Weymouth recently saw something unusual in the waters of Radipole.

There was much pointing and a few "oohs" and "aahs" as the lake surface swirled and splashed as a huge shoal of several hundred fish quartered a large sunlit area of water.

I have lived in Weymouth more than 30 years and I have seen the occasional visible fish near the bridge, but I have never seen them in such great numbers so close in.

Some of them were a good 12 inches long, but what made it more interesting was that even closer in to the bridge was another shoal of smaller fish perhaps two or three inches long which were there in a dense mass too numerous to even guess at numbers.

The natural show was a real crowd pleaser and parents were holding young children up so they could see what was happening in the water.

Harry Walton 01305 787843
hds Walton@yahoo.co.uk

Car parking is for the birds

MUCH public moaning has taken place about the loss of parking spaces to this roadworks compound or that proposed development in Weymouth.

The bottom line seems to be that parking spaces are too valuable to be lost in such a fashion, but there is now an unusual threat which has already cost Weymouth hundreds of pounds in parking revenue.

I speak of a different bottom line which recently put more than two dozen spaces out of bounds for motorists in the Swannery car park.

The problem was that the spaces had been taken over by 50 or 60 ducks!

Sunshine had been warming the spaces nicely for several hours and the ducks clearly felt that this was an ideal spot to, well, warm their bottoms.

So there they were by the score, dozing happily not just across a prime wedge of parking spaces but right across the road as well.

Passing cars scarcely made them open their eyes and in the hour or so I was in the area there actually seemed to be more ducks joining the sleep-in.

The rest of the car park quickly filled up, but this duck dormitory area remained strictly for the birds.

Grass roots football is the best!

FOOTBALL is a love which starts early when impressionable youngsters often pledge their support to whichever team happens to be top of the league.

Now you wouldn't think that little Weymouth would have enough glamour to match the glitter of Chelsea, but they seemed to get the vote of one five-year-old boy.

He was both a Chelsea supporter and a Weymouth supporter so people might think he had divided loyalties, but not a bit of it. He actually liked Weymouth slightly more.

The reason for this emerged after he was lucky enough to go up to London and watch his Premiership heroes.

He loved his day out and was clearly delighted at seeing the Chelsea players, but he felt that perhaps Chelsea was not quite as good as Weymouth.

And why did he feel that way? Well apparently he was upset that he couldn't go out on to the Stamford Bridge pitch at half time for a kick around like he could at Weymouth!

Still going strong

THEY fought for us in wars and defended us in peacetime but those veterans are quite clearly in no mood to grow old quietly.

A number of veterans' events in Weymouth brought out glittering medals and ramrod straight backs, but if one golden oldie I recently spoke to recently is anything to go by then the passing decades have actually speeded up their lives rather than slowed them down.

Just talking to him made me feel tired as he detailed his busy days and all he packed into them. Then I made a mistake.

I just happened to casually say that, with him being so busy with military and charity work during the day, he must really look forward to his armchair at night.

Not a bit of it, he said, and then revealed that he is in charge of a karaoke event on three or four nights a week. Mind you, he is only in his late 80s!

■ WE are now in the height of the tourist season and height was certainly a problem for one little boy who wanted to use a public toilet.

It was one of those pressed steel trough affairs and it was just out of his reach, so his Dad lifted him off the ground.

Unfortunately the pressure of the moment got to the boy and he couldn't manage to pee to order. Others using the same facility were left grinning as the boy told his red-faced Dad: "If I was home I could use the bath!"

Central heating at an affordable price!

ALL THIS for just £1198.00 (+VAT*)

ITS TRUE! For a limited period only, PW SERVICES Colyton are supplying all this at a competitive low price, a complete heating system capable of heating a three bedroom house.

The Glow Worm Flexicom 24kw condensing combination boiler, comes with a five year parts and labour warranty, standard flue kit, pipe work, six radiators and energy efficient controls. If your heating system and boiler are delivering large fuel bills this is your chance to do something about it and upgrade your system for a fraction of the normal cost. So if you've been wondering how much it would cost to purchase a complete heating system, now you know, don't just sit there waiting for winter when costs rise - ring us now for a FREE NO OBLIGATION QUOTATION.

By installing a new high efficiency-condensing boiler in your home, you could cut your fuel bills by over 30%. That's because high efficiency boilers are designed to use less gas to produce the same amount of heat. There are also many more ways to shrink your fuel bills down to size, such as fitting smart energy efficient controls like programmable room thermostats and thermostatic radiator valves.

Whatever type of old heating system you have, we can also supply similar packages on oil and Propane boilers. We can supply and install either for a fraction of the price of our competitors.

PW Services of Colyton also supply and install a full range of quality manufacturers sanitaryware and bathroom furniture. We are currently supplying all our sanitaryware at 30% off retail prices, so if you have recently had a quotation for a new bathroom or en-suite why not compare it to our prices.

SOLAR ENERGY

If you're the type of person who wants to look after the environment and your money at the same time why not consider solar energy. We have been installing solar panels to heat hot water in a number of properties of varying sizes in the East Devon area, there are grants available and all labour and materials are charged at 5% vat. And if you have your solar installed by a local company, and not by someone who posts a leaflet through your door, you are guaranteed an efficient after sales service and not the delays or 'no show' of the leaflet droppers.

So for a NO OBLIGATION QUOTATION call our number below and we will be happy to arrange a site visit to discuss your requirements. Rest assured we will endeavour to design and supply your heating system or bathroom at a price you will not believe possible.

There are many reasons why you should love Beaminster. It is a charming, historic and vibrant town with something to offer everybody. The town stands at the head of the valley of the River Brit where many tributaries join together, and the streets tend to follow the line of the streams which in earlier times flowed above ground in many parts. It is surrounded by exceptional countryside and interesting buildings, it boasts a diverse and active community, and has some of the best services and shops you will find.

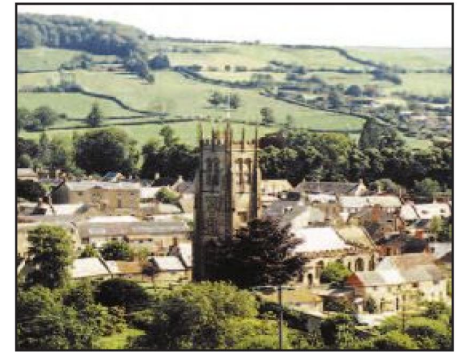

On these pages we celebrate the many and varied local business and traders in and around the town of Beaminster. If you need to shop it should be high on your list of destinations and would make a great day out. You will find gift shops, ironmongers, arts and crafts, pubs and restaurants. Come and explore, there is something here for everybody.

If you already know Beaminster you will understand what a fantastic place it is. If you don't or haven't been for a while then seize the opportunity to visit.

You will soon be saying "I LOVE BEAMINSTER!"

That's the way the teddy bears have their picnic ...

■ EVERYONE'S a winner on this stall.

■ BEARS HAVING A GOOD TIME: From the left, Katie Hallett, 8, Wendy Brockwell, Jackie Szabo and Nancy Howard, 8.

by Harry Walton

BEARS came out of the woods and went picnicking in Weymouth's Nothe Gardens.

They were enjoying the fifth annual teddy bears' picnic organised by the Friends of the Nothe Gardens.

There was plenty to occupy their owners from bouncy castles, raffles and wacky races to stalls, games, story telling and music.

Friends chairman Mary Citrine said: "It was an amazing turn-out and we are very pleased that the picnic was such a success.

"The weather was lovely and we hope to have raised lots of money to help improve the gardens."

■ BOUNCING good fun

Wildlife workshops at the wetlands

A NEW series of Wednesday wildlife workshops is to be run at Weymouth Wetlands.

Events will be held from now until the beginning of September.

The aim is to help people better understand some of the amazing creatures at the Radipole Lake nature reserve in the heart of town.

Anyone interested is welcome to go along to the lake visitor centre in the Swannery car park to get expert advice on identifying a whole range of wildlife.

Information officer Luke Phillips said: "This is a great opportunity for people to find out about some of the less familiar wildlife at Weymouth Wetlands.

"We have plenty of mammals here and, of course, birds and we'll be talking about them too, but there is also a wealth of smaller creatures which are just as fascinating in their own right. Most importantly, they're all part of the food chain and essential to the ecology of the reserve but they're often overlooked."

Morning sessions will focus on the wonderful world of moths which will be on display at the visitor centre after being humanely trapped the night before. Participants can then go out and explore the reserve with pond-dipping and bug-hunting equipment.

Afternoon sessions at the visitor centre will look at a host of other bugs including spiders, beetles, caterpillars, dragonflies and damselflies as well as some of the underwater wildlife of the reserve.

People will also be able to view the latest live footage from the reserve's remote night cameras where otters and fox cubs are among the latest stars.

Visitors can also add their own photographs to the Weymouth Wetlands Wildlife ID gallery which is on show at the visitor centre.

More information is available from the lake visitor centre or on 01305-778313.

Creature Comforts

Woolly jumpers and blankets are not required this time of year, yet we see many dogs walking around panting with thick heavy overgrown coats making the heat even more unbearable.

Therefore, we at Creature Comforts are offering 10% off to any new customer. Your pet can try one of our luxury, exfoliating massage treatments and bath using specially formulated products to suit your dog's coat.

We pride ourselves on our treatments, service and growing customer base, of which many have been loyal for many years and continue to recommend us on a daily basis. Pop into our salon at Unit 2, Magdalen Lane, just before the Medical Centre, on your way to Dreadnaught Trading Estate to discuss your pet's needs.

We would like to remind everyone that we do specialise in CATS, dematting their coat, avoiding costly sedation bills and only shave the coat as a very last resort to avoid stress to your pet. Most of our existing clients with cats are amazed how settled their pet becomes, even purring during their experience.

All our staff are qualified in a variety of canine, feline fields and look forward to meeting you and your pet.

John Butler Massage

After living and working in London for five years, returning local John Butler now offers holistic massage at Bridport Complementary Medicine Centre, Mountfield.

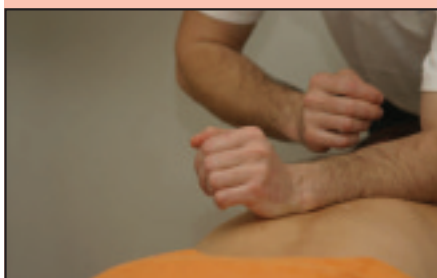

John was trained by Clare Maxwell-Hudson, a leading authority who pioneered the use of massage within the NHS. Being taught by the premier massage therapist in the country was inspiring, and gave John in-depth practical and theoretical knowledge.

Massage has many potential benefits, such as helping to relieve muscle fatigue, stiffness, soreness; increase freedom and comfort of movement; ease anxiety and stress; encourage good sleep; provide relief from back pain.

Introductory offer: two one-hour treatments for £30 each, or two half-hour treatments for £17 each.

John Butler is fully insured, and registered with both the Complementary and Natural Healthcare Council (the voluntary regulatory body backed by the Department of Health), and the Massage Training Institute.

For more information call John on 07921 720915 or see www.johnbutlermassage.com.

Elwell Boarding Kennels

Nestling in the heart of the West Dorset countryside, we are tucked right away from the noise and bustle, but we're still only a ten minute drive from Bridport town centre and the A35.

Are you looking for a safe and secure holiday home for your dog, or livery for your horse? Then do have a browse around our site - we're really proud of our super new kennels, and our snug stables offer everything you need for full, part or DIY livery. For more information, please contact us by e-mail (nell@elwellfarm.co.uk) or phone (01308 488923). Andrew and Nell look forward to hearing from you, answering your questions and providing five-star accommodation for your four-legged friends!

Lorna Fox

Lorna Fox trained and worked as a chiropractor in Bridport for 20 years. She now offers a range of other treatments including acupuncture kinesiology and counselling for problems such as back pain, sciatica, arm, leg, neck or any joint pains.

She can also help with headaches muscle problems or related disorders. She has also trained with Paul McKenna and Richard Bandler in hypnotherapy and NLP and has had some success with weight loss. For any enquiries please call 01308 459979.

Bringing you the very best in children's and baby wear

BEST DRESSED CHILDREN IN DORSET

Petite Mouette Children's Boutique has arrived in Dorchester

9b Weymouth Avenue
Dorchester
DT1 1QR

01305 753533

www.petite-mouette.co.uk

Petite Mouette began life as a small exclusive boutique in Swanage selling beautiful clothes to enthusiastic adults who want to see children dressed as children. All their clothes are carefully selected to bring you the very best in children's apparel. They believe that we live in a throw away society where it is all too easy to buy cheap clothes that don't last, and that their range of quality, traditional and fun children's wear is the perfect antidote to this. Utter belief in the products they sell has been key to the success of this company as they have now opened a second shop in phase one of the new brewery Square Development in Dorchester where they will soon be stocking more exciting brands including 3 pomme, Absorba, Chippie, Darcy Brown, as well as great new baby gift ideas, accessories and cards. They are also expanding their boy's range which is due in store very soon. Petite Mouette advocate a quality collection of well made, interesting clothes that you and your children will treasure, clothes you won't find anywhere else on the high street, that will still be in use in years to come; perhaps handed down through the family to siblings then friends, they believe this is real value for money. Petite Mouette invite you to join them on their journey to find stunning quality clothes that you will be proud to dress your children in.

The key to quality craftsmanship, great products and outstanding service!

Shoetrees is a family business with branches in the heart of Dorchester and Weymouth. Husband and wife team, Malcolm and Jo Holbrook have over 24 years experience in the trade between them, and can help with expert shoe repair. This may include advice on soles and heels, leather patching, stitching and orthopaedic work. They also stock 86 colours of shoe cream that will match any shoes.

A comprehensive engraving service is available, and they can engrave anything from sports trophies to christening presents which they have a huge range of in the shop. All engraving is done on the premises and a same day engraving service can often be offered.

If you need your keys cut, hundreds are available in store if they don't have what you want they will order it in for you.

The shop is the perfect place to visit if you are planning a holiday. Their range of quality luggage and bags is second to none. Staff will be happy to discuss your travel plans and have up to date information on which bags are suitable dimensions for each airline's allowances. You will also find a massive selection of travel accessories essential for many destinations.

Shoetrees is the perfect store for quality leather goods including wallets, brief cases, laptop bags, holdalls, and satchels. You will find a great range of watchstraps and batteries in store that can be fitted on the premises.

Not only are Shoetrees an expert on shoe repair, key cutting, and engraving centre, but their quality goods and outstanding service give it the feel of the travel section of a department store, and so make it a must for all shoppers.

Weekend fun at Antelope Walk!

Everybody is invited to Antelope Walk in Dorchester on Saturday August 7th between 9am and 5pm for a very special event.

The event is to raise substantial charity funds for the Weldmar Trust Hospice Foundation and in particular Joseph Weld Hospice, which you may know is highly regarded as a special friend of Dorchester.

The entire Walk will be decked out with bunting and flags and both entrances will be well signed with large banners. All this is being provided by the Weldmar Trust so will be in their colours and logos.

Various shop units have donated to the entertainment fund for the day and have raised about £450. This fund is to pay for various musicians who will be entertaining the public on the day.

Many of the shops along the walk will be holding special activities to join in, as well as holding collections for The Weldmar Trust. Activities include free tasting of coffee, goodie bag distribution, raffles, a treasure hunt, fancy dress, special offers and much, much more.

Delicious dining inside and out

NAPPER'S Mite is a fully licensed restaurant coffee shop, it offers a varied menu with daily specials. The garden and courtyard seating is very popular along with the restaurant and bar. New for this summer, Napper's Mite are offering Smoothies and Milk shakes from Eden Delicious. Cream teas are available alternatively Napper's Mite offer a selection cakes for those of you with a sweet tooth.

There are four areas where you can eat with old world charm, two inside, a central section in a covered courtyard and a very pleasant garden out back. The small restaurant/wine bar is excellent for morning coffees right through to a full varied lunch menu. Ideal for families, you can choose from a range of light lunchtime snacks such as baguettes, sandwiches and jacket potatoes. Their hot chocolate with whippy cream and a flake is highly recommended.

Latest review of Napper's Mite on Google maps by Diane says, "We popped in here for lunch whilst on holiday in October. My husband, 16 month old child and I. Service was excellent and I had the best omelette that I have ever had. Highly recommend".

A new word in style for county town

A shop that mixes the work of Dorset designers with internationally famous names is the latest addition to Dorchester's buoyant retail scene.

Eureka is the second retail venture by entrepreneur Tim Altham, whose business until now has been in supplying quality retailers with stylish stationery and fashion accessories. The first Eureka store opened in September 2009 in Swanage.

Products at the Dorchester store include stationery and accessories from Designers Guild, beauty products from Drenched and Glamourflage in Australia, TOKYObay watches from San Francisco, stationery and ceramics from Cath Kidston and Nora jewellery from Norway (exclusive to Eureka).

Designers from Dorset are responsible for the shop's lively spread of greeting cards and wrappings, as well as the range of contemporary eco bags which, says Tim, are leading the field in colour and design.

He said: "We have produced the most ethical range of eco bags on the market. The content is entirely recycled, from old plastic bottles, and no one else is doing that with folding eco bags."

Eureka, Tim says, sets out to offer "an infusion of colour and design, across a whole range of products - as many as possible from Dorset designers."

"We want to support local artists and designers, and we are always happy to talk to them about their ideas."

Beautiful fashion for "real" women

Figure Eight located in Antelope Walk Dorchester specialises in fashion for "real" women from sizes 16 to 30.

The shop is the brainchild of proprietor Elaine Keetch, a designer who ran successful businesses in Bath, Wells and Yeovil before relocating to Dorchester.

Elaine explains, "several of my friends were bemoaning the fact that as plus size girls, they were disappointed with the range of day and occasion wear available. I felt that there was a real problem for ladies who were not in the size 8 to 12 range who still needed clothing to suit their lifestyle and I decided to specialise in finding the very best clothes in sizes up to 30".

Since opening in Dorchester the collections have grown, stocking labels from across Europe, Chalou, Semprie Prui, Be The Queen, Rhiona Stone to name a few.

Due to the demand for the collections, Elaine is looking at stocking some ranges from a size 12.

Figure Eight will soon be launching their new website where you will be able to browse new Autumn/Winter collections and be made aware of seasonal promotions and events.

Personal shopping experiences will also soon be available for those who find it difficult to come during shop opening or for a personal shopping experience to share with friends and have fun for an evening.

As always, we also stock a fantastic range of handbags, wraps, jewellery and other accessories whatever your size.

If you have not yet visited us, please call in for a warm welcome.

I should "pick" a fishy for my little dishy...

Billy the fish has been established in Dorchester for some time now and the people of the area have recognised his business as two sections, a Fish Monger on one side and quirky Sea Food restaurant on the other.

Recently Billy the Proprietor decided to combine the two and incorporate a significant fresh fish counter into the restaurant layout, giving his customers the chance to visually select their choice of fish and sit by and watch as it is prepared and cooked to their liking.

For example, why not pick and mix a fresh fish platter made up of prawns, scallops, calamari and lobster to be freshly prepared and served for a group of you to share.

You do not have to eat your pickings in the restaurant, the fresh fish counter operates as any other fish monger does and gives it's customers the opportunity to buy 'fruites de mer' over the counter and do the cooking bit at home or on the bbq.

The restaurant that Billy created now seats 36 and more if the venue is booked for private buffet parties. The business also has been known to cater for wedding parties, birthdays (with karaoke) and also special cook nights where you can (in small groups at a time) actually go into the kitchen and take part in the process of filleting and cooking the fish.

There are lunch and evening menus containing all fresh locally caught fish, meat and vegetarian options, vegetables which come, in particular, from Billy's father's allotment which adds to the friendly local feel of the business.

Lunch is served daily from 11-4pm and evening dinner from Thursday to Saturday from 7pm-late but Billy would like to make it clear that if you wish to book a table for an evening that is not advertised as open, the team will gladly open the restaurant to meet your needs. Best of British!

Afternoon tea at the Old Tea House
'Bring back the traditional English tea time!'
'Relax and make time for tea!'

This is how Country Living Magazine described this teahouse built in 1635. Afternoon tea bridges the divide between young and old, everyone from small children to grandparents enjoys teatime.

The Ritz is unbeatable for its high teas and ambience, but our wonderful tea house is right here on your doorstep in Dorchester waiting to embrace and delight you with the most wonderful home made scones and tea time treats.

There are 2 or 3 tiers to the cake stands, with a selection of finger sandwiches, homemade cakes, eclairs and scones, with tea or freshly ground coffee. There is also tea-cakes, crumpets and homemade soups just waiting to be shared with you, with roast dinners and scrumptious puddings on Sunday.

Come along, relax and enjoy one of Dorset's most beautiful and most haunted tea rooms. A warm welcome awaits you so don't hesitate to revive this great British tradition of high, afternoon and cream teas. Best of British!

The Keep Military Museum

THE MILITARY Museum of Devon and Dorset is considered by many as being a little like a "Tardis" in that from the outside there is this iconic structure not dissimilar to a castle albeit only 140 years old, but on the inside it blossoms to include four floors of displays all of which feature a truly fabulous collection of militaria spanning 300 years of service. The museums displays are ever changing, interpretation is a key factor when designing or re-configuring a display, this work makes it easier for visitors to understand something of what life was like during the many different era's of our soldiers involvement with military conflict and life in peacetime. Visitors this year will see a complete change to the second floor of the museum. This floor presents uniforms, weapons, medals and silver as well as many other very interesting artefacts. The entire floor is now lit by LED lighting in various forms. The lighting is more subtle in many areas but vibrant in feature displays. This lighting is modern by design, it is slightly more costly but this is far outweighed by the longevity of the lights, the savings in electricity consumption, and they greatly minimise any heat or UV damage to textiles or paintings. Visitors can get a taste of the museum by going to www.dorchesterdorset.com clicking on the virtual Dorchester Tab, scroll to the bottom of the page and then by using the left and right arrows locate the museum through the pictorial icons, once found, hit on the icon and come on into the museum. Come along and see the whole collection for yourself, you will not be disappointed.

Folk legend
Martin Simpson
returns to Lyme

FOLLOWING hot on the heels of appearances from John Otway and Limehouse Lizzy, folk legend Martin Simpson is set for an appearance at Lyme Regis' Woodmead Halls, continuing the successful first season of The Legends Return.

There is no doubt that after 35 years as a professional musician Martin is, right now, better than ever. Widely acknowledged as one of the finest acoustic and slide guitar players in the world, his interpretations of traditional songs are masterpieces of storytelling. His solo shows are intense, eclectic, spellbinding and deeply moving.

There is no-one who has more successfully combined the diverse elements of British, Afro-American and old-timey music than Simpson. His 15 years living in the US were well spent. In addition his own songwriting has produced some real gems, from the truck-stop epic, "Love Never Dies" to the profoundly moving "Never Any Good" and "One Day".

His career includes collaborations on stage and record with June Tabor, Kelly Joe Phelps, Jackson Browne, Danny Thompson, Danú, Martin Carthy, Cara Dillon, David Lindley, Roy Bailey, Martin Taylor, David Hidalgo, Steve Miller, Dick Gaughan and many more.

Martin has been nominated an astounding 23 times in the eleven years of the BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards - more than any other performer - with 9 consecutive years as nominee for Musician of The Year, which he has won twice. 2008 saw an incredible 5 nominations for "Prodigal Son" and 2 wins, whilst in 2010 he had an unprecedented 6 nominations for his CD, "True Stories" and a win for Best Traditional Track, "Sir Patrick Spens".

Whether playing American old-time music, blues, a Dylan song or his own material, Martin Simpson is unpredictable, individual and a guitarist of immense subtlety.

Support comes from up-and-comer Cole Stacey, recently described by Steve Knightley (Show Of Hands) as "An Impassioned & Ambitious Young Songwriter".

Cole Stacey is a singer/songwriter hailing from just over the border in Devon.

His rapidly growing reputation has led him to have continued airplay on BBC Radio 2 and stations across the world, supporting award winning acts such as Cara Dillon, Lau, Steve Knightley and Megson, and performing at nationwide venues and Festivals.

Cole has released two EP's bringing airplay and acclaim, and recently his debut album, 'Changing Faces'.

Tickets for the gig are £12 in advance or £14 at door. Doors Open 8pm. Tickets are on sale at the Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre, 01297 442138 and by PayPal online at <http://www.lymeregis.tv/legends.html>

Crash and Byrne

THE headliner for August's Electric Comedy night is right up their with the top names in comedy - Ed Byrne!

As an observational stand-up, Irish megastar Ed Byrne is utterly unrivalled. A household name from regular appearances on Mock The Week, Have I Got News For You, Never Mind The Buzzcocks and barnstorming sets on Live At The Apollo. Ed first captivated the critics in the mid 90s at the Edinburgh Festival, scooping up a fistful of awards and has gone from strength to strength ever since, selling out huge tours year after year and winning him a devoted legion of fans the world over. Don't miss this chance to catch one of comedy's biggest and best in an intimate venue!

Joining Ed on this unmissable night is much hyped Welsh newcomer Elis James, recently seen supporting Rhod Gilbert on his huge tour, and hosting is yarn spinning resident Canadian grizzly man Craig Campbell.

Tickets for this show will sell out very fast so book early to avoid disappointment.

The show takes place on Tuesday, August 3rd at the Electric Palace in Bridport. Tickets are £12.50, and doors open 7.30pm. To book call the box office on 01308 424 901 or in person at the Bridport TIC.

Reg returns

BRIDPORT Arts Centre is glad to be welcoming back old favourite Reg Meuross on Friday, July 30th at 8pm with his new show Artisans & Angels, and also a special sneak preview of songs from his new CD 'All This Longing', due for release in September.

Reg commented: "After previous sell-out concerts at Bridport Arts Centre with Phil Beer and Jackie Oates, I'm looking forward to returning to one of the finest theatres in Dorset, for it's warm welcome and its intimate and friendly atmosphere."

Reg Meuross takes us into the worlds of true-life lovers, singers and poets in an unforgettable, haunting journey. In this new and unique show he looks at events that shaped the lives of the artists and artisans who inspire us. The original songs reveal the hearts of many great characters including the poet Thomas Chatterton, Highwayman Dick Turpin and the KING, Elvis!

Reg's latest release 'All This Longing' follows the success of his previous album 'Dragonfly', which received excellent reviews and extensive airplay in the UK and America, and took Reg to The Royal Albert Hall. This new, all-acoustic album features Reg on a variety of instruments including six string and tenor guitars, and brings together 12 beautiful and original songs. The album also features a wealth of talent including Paul Sartin from Bellowhead, Andy Cutting on accordion, Jackie Oates on viola, Fairground Attraction's Roy Dodds on percussion and Simon Edwards on bass.

Reg Meuross is a "true English troubadour", his excellent and soulful voice compliments his skilled playing on the guitar and dulcimer. Brilliant and distinctive Bethany Porter, who has played with Eliza Carthy and Kula Shaker, will be a perfect accompanist to Reg's skillfully crafted songs at this gig.

Reg Meuross plays Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, July 30th at 8pm, tickets can be purchased from the Box Office on 01308 424204 priced £10, £9 supporters and £7 concessions and students.

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

SIR Stephen Spender (1909-1995) was one of the so-called Oxford group of modernist poets which included his friends Louis MacNeice and W.H. Auden. The first poem I have chosen from Spender's substantial collection puts me in mind of those truly great Battle of Britain airmen who were saving our skins seventy years ago.

I Think Continually Of Those Who Were Truly Great

I think continually of those who were truly great. Who, from the womb, remembered the soul's history Through corridors of light where the hours are suns Endless and singing. Whose lovely ambition Was that their lips, still touched with fire, Should tell of the Spirit clothed from head to foot in song.

And who hoarded from the Spring branches The desires falling across their bodies like blossoms.

What is precious is never to forget The essential delight of the blood drawn from ageless springs

Breaking through rocks in worlds before our earth. Never to deny its pleasure in the morning simple light Nor its grave evening demand for love.

Never to allow gradually the traffic to smother With noise and fog the flowering of the spirit.

Near the snow, near the sun, in the highest fields See how these names are fêted by the waving grass And by the streamers of white cloud And whispers of wind in the listening sky.

The names of those who in their lives fought for life Who wore at their hearts the fire's center.

Born of the sun they travelled a short while towards the sun,

And left the vivid air singing with their honour.

COMPARED to his friend Auden, Spender was perhaps considered a minor poet. He once said that being a minor poet is like being minor royalty. No one, a former lady-in-waiting to Princess Margaret had told him, is happy at that.

These two poems about his daughter were both written in 1953.

To My Daughter

Bright clasp of her whole hand around my finger,
My daughter, as we walk together now,
All my life I'll feel a ring invisibly
Circle this bone with shining: when she is grown
Far from today as her eyes are far already.

Missing my Daughter

This wall-paper has lines that rise
Upright like bars, and overhead,

*The ceiling's patterned with red roses.
On the wall opposite the bed
The staring looking-glass encloses
Six roses in its white of eyes.*

*Here at my desk, with note-book open
Missing my daughter, makes those bars
Draw their lines upward through my mind.
This blank page stares at me like glass
Where stared-at roses wish to pass Through petalling of my pen.*

*An hour ago there came an image
Of a beast that pressed its muzzle
Between bars. Next, through tick and tock
Of the reiterating clock
A second glared with the wide dazzle
Of deserts. The door, in a green mirage, Opened. In my daughter came.*

*Her eyes were wide as those she has,
The round gaze of her childhood was White as the distance in the glass
Or on a white page, a white poem.
The roses raced around her name.*

SPENDER was professor of English at University College, London, from 1970 to 1977, and gave frequent lecture tours in the United States. He was knighted in 1983.

PERFECT PRODUCTION

DAVE Saunders and Harry Skinner formed The Producers in 1990 and quickly became one of the most popular blues outfits in the country, winning the 'Blues Band of the Year' award 4 times and releasing 7 CD albums, one of which 'Ain't no Love in the World' was nominated for the 'Best Blues Album' award.

Popularity amongst blues fans for The Producers is very strong and national tours sell out as standard. The Producers were among the first to feature an acoustic set in their show which led to the whole acoustic set becoming almost 'de rigueur' with every band, blues or otherwise, following The Producers lead.

The Producers are regularly asked to headline Europe's best blues festivals to include the Cognac Blues Festival in France, Colne, Burnley, Stanley Blues, Templebar Dublin, Cork, Farnham, North Wales Blues Festival plus many more. At the Cognac Blues Festival, they were joined onstage by headliner Ray Charles' brass section and, memorably, his 'Raelets' shim-mying and dancing in front of them!

Praised by Johnnie Walker and Bob Harris, The Producers played in session on Radio 2 for the Paul Jones Blues Show. They were later asked to tour as support for Fleetwood Mac's Peter Green for his first national tour for 25 years.

Catch The Producers live at Bridport's Electric Palace on Thursday, August 12th. Tickets are on sale now from Bridport Tourist Information Centre for £10 in advance and £12 on the door.

Music Night Fundraiser at the Electric Palace

THE Electric Palace is the place to be on Tuesday, August 17th where popular Bridport band Vinyl Monkeys, one of the most innovative bands to emerge on the south coast for a long, long while. Their energetic rendering of covers from, among others songs by the Red Hot Chili Peppers, Kings of Leon and the Killers along with their own original numbers, leave the audience wanting more at the end of every gig.

Also Playing are Shelby's Elbows; An acoustic duo from deepest darkest Dorset, with a variety of covers, from Nirvana to Neil Young, Seal to Skynyrd, Dire Straits to Turin Brakes and anything in between.

Opening the evening will be lap tap guitarist Tony Haven, an Instrumental acoustic guitarist who brings to mind the pop sensibility of Newton Faulkner whilst harnessing the guitar wizardry of Eric Mongrain.

Doors open at 7.30pm with music 8 - 12 midnight; Tickets for this event are available now from Tourist Information (01308 424901) and Bridport Music shop (01308 425707) at £8 in advance, or £10 on the door.

Come and support Colfox student Jack Bowskill raise funds for his expedition to Kenya where he will be helping local communities with building projects, education and wildlife conservation.

Concerts in the West move to Axminster

CONCERTS in the West's next performance will be in the Minster Church of St Mary the Virgin in Axminster on 29th July rather than the Marine Theatre at Lyme Regis. "This move is a bit of a challenge but the programme suits this lovely church perfectly and it will be an exceptional concert so I really encourage our Lyme audience to up sticks and come" said Catherine Hodgson who organizes Concerts in the West.

Catherine Hodgson is Director of the London Handel Festival, lives in Chard and runs it from her office in Ilminster. These concerts are a small microcosm of the London Handel Festival and reflect the quality she achieves there.

This concert brings together two of the rising stars of the early music stage. Katherine Manley and Christopher Ainslie.

Katherine is an up and coming soprano. Her engagements in the last twelve months include the starring role of Dafne in Handel's Apollo e Dafne at the Wigmore Hall, Seleuce Tolomeo and Dalinda Ariodante for English Touring Opera, Messiah at Waterfront Hall, Belfast for the Ulster Orchestra, St Matthew Passion at Bath Abbey and Helena in the new production of A Midsummer Night's Dream for Garsington Opera. Subsequent engagements include Lucia in The Rape of Lucretia for Angers/Nantes Opera.

Christopher Ainslie is a much sought-after counter-tenor who had his Wigmore Hall debut just last weekend. His plans this year include the title role in Tamerlano at the Göttingen Festival, Ottone in L'incoronazione di Poppea, a UK autumn tour to be announced shortly and the St Matthew Passion in Cape Town.

It is a privilege to have these two here and it will certainly be a pleasure.

Bleakley replaced with... Bleakley clone?

CHRISTINE Bleakley look-a-like Alex Jones has been chosen as the new co-host of The One Show. The BBC announced last night that Alex will front the magazine programme from Monday, August 16th.

Alex said: "I'm absolutely thrilled to bits to be joining The One Show. I watch the show at home every night on my sofa and can't believe I'm now swapping it for The One Show sofa! It is the break I have only ever dreamed of."

Co-presenter Jason Manford added: "After meeting so many brilliant presenters Alex just felt really special. She is going to be brill and we can't wait to start the show together."

CRICKET star and A League Of Their Own panelist Freddie Flintoff has revealed a secret desire to appear in Coronation Street. Freddie, who admitted to catching up with episodes from his home in Dubai, said: "Corrie's got everything. I know all the characters. I could easily fit it in and I'd love to have a go. I could be in The Kabin, marking up the papers with Norris and Rita."

X FACTOR bosses are hoping to shed the show's cheesy image by axing the usual parade of boybands, balladeers and sob stories. Reports suggest that this year Simon Cowell and co are hoping to find a singer or group with a genuine career ahead of them. A source said: "It's the seventh year and it needed to change."

Donkey walks and picnics in Beaminster

WALK a short way West of Beaminster through Puckett's wood and you will come to Stokewater Meadow, field home of Stokewater Meadow Donkey and Art centre. The French have been wild about donkey walking for years. There is something profoundly satisfying about walking with these attentive and affectionate animals. Taking the weight off your shoulders by carrying your picnics and baggage in the traditional way.

Smallholder Chris Brancher helped by his partner art educator Susan have set up the centre in a beautiful valley setting.

They offer a days donkey experience starting with basic donkey handling tips, grooming and tacking up followed by a leisurely walk four to five miles through the bridle ways around the Brit Valley and TV's original River Cottage location. Pub lunch or picnic en route.

In addition, parents and children may enjoy our donkey art picnics in the vicinity of the stream bordered valley centre, especially during school holidays.

Sorry only places in August left for this activity on the 24th and 26th.

For enquiries and more

I love it when a plan comes together...

DON'T miss this week's big releases, including The A-Team (12A) based on the popular 1980s television series of the same name.

The film stars Liam Neeson, Bradley Cooper, Quinton Jackson and Sharlto Copley as the four ex-US Army Special Forces on the run for a crime they didn't commit.

Eight years since escaping from captivity, the group are now a successful rogue combat unit based in Iraq using their special skills to clear their name and find the culprit who framed them.

After being contacted by CIA agent Lynch, the team set out on a mission to retrieve stolen US treasury plates being used to create counterfeit currency by Iraqi insurgents. The mission is successful but, after their commanding officer is killed and the plates stolen again, The A-Team have no proof they were authorised to act and are returned to prison.

Can the A-Team break out again and finally clear their name?

I PITY THE FOOL | The A-Team of 2010 are back in jail for a crime they didn't commit

MARTIAL arts legend Jackie Chan stars in the remake of the 1984 film The Karate Kid (PG).

Produced by Hollywood stars Will Smith and Jada Pinkett Smith, the film also stars their son Jaden, who shot to fame after his role in The Pursuit of Happyness alongside his father.

Aged 12, Dre Parker (Smith) and his mother move from Detroit to Beijing to start a new life. But, after developing a crush on young violinist Mei Ying, Dre soon finds himself the target of school bully Cheng and the victim of several brutal beatings.

Dre is saved one day by maintenance man Mr Han (Chan), who reveals himself as a kung-fu master and scares the bullies away.

Mr Han begins to teach Dre how to defend himself, and that serenity and maturity, rather than power and punches, are the true key to mastering the martial arts.

Both films released today (Wednesday, July 28th)

Hardy's Tea goes from strength to strength

SINCE its launch last November, Dorchester's own Hardy's Tea has been in growing demand. Blended by Char-Chars of Dorchester and approved by world renowned Tea Master Tim Clifton, the tea is a combination of fine loose leaf teas from some of the top tea estates in the world.

"We've worked closely with the County Museum and the Hardy Society who have helped us create a profile of Hardy, which has been the basis of our tea blend. The resulting robust breakfast tea reflects Hardy's character and taste." Says co-owner Sonja Morgan.

"At Char-Chars we use only the best quality tea leaves, which produce a depth of flavour and a crispness you just don't get from ordinary tea bags. Our Hardy's blend has a deep maltiness, with a smoked caramel smoothness, which can be enjoyed with or without milk!"

The tea is on sale at Char-Chars Tea Room on South Street, Dorchester, where you'll find many other fine teas and a delicious range of local food all served in a friendly and welcoming environment.

Tins of Hardy's tea can also be purchased at the County Museum, Dorchester Tourist Information and the museum at Lyme Regis.

Summer dance classes to start in Bridport with top teachers

SUMMER Dance Scene will take place at Bridport Arts Centre from Monday 9th to Friday, August 13th. This is an intensive week of dance looking at technique and choreography. Classes run from 10am - 4pm. Guest teachers will be offering classes in contemporary, street dance and improvisation. This year's teachers include award winning performer Niki McCretton, street dancer and choreographer Xavi Monreal (Pineapple dance studios), Pure Funk, Dan Wright (who has recently been dancing in Matthew Bourne's triumphant Swan Lake), and director, performer and choreographer Benjamin Dunks. The week is for young people aged 14 years and over with substantial dance experience and with a passion for dancing. To encourage more boys to dance there are three subsidised places available for boys. To enrol phone Bridport Arts Centre box office on 01308 424204, there are just a few places left. Cost £85 for the week, £65 concessions. Summer Dance scene is a part of Bridport Youth Dance development and is co-ordinated by Nikki Northover.

New creative writing course starts soon

A NEW Black Dog Creative writing course is starting in September. The practical course provides a friendly and encouraging environment for anyone who harbours dreams of writing, either for publication or just for their own pleasure. The experienced course tutor, Joanna Smith, presents a different aspect of the art of fiction each week and helps students find the time, the will and the way to write. Classes will be held at The Old Black Dog, Uplyme on Wednesdays from 7.00 - 8.45pm and at The Good Shepherd Stained Glass Studio, Seaton on Wednesdays from 1.00 - 2.45pm.

To the manor born?

FORTNAM Smith & Banwell(Charmouth) are delighted to offer for sale freehold, Number Two, a part of CATHERSTON MANOR in Catherston Leweston near Charmouth.

This wonderful Grade II Listed Manor is situated on the hill overlooking Charmouth with its own majestic winding driveway.

Number 2 used to be the Schoolroom for the children of the Manor in past times and boasts some lovely period features.

Part of its origins are believed to date back to the 14th century and most of today's Gothic facade was added in the Victorian era.

Catherston Manor was redeveloped in the 1960s into seven individual properties. Number 2 The Manor forms the central part of the west wing, with spectacular coastal views over Lyme Bay. The property has three bedrooms and a wealth of period features, including high 13 ft ceilings and large mullion windows, making this a very impressive property.

Entrance to the large lounge is via the stunning Gothic arched door with its 6" key! The lounge has original exposed floorboards and an impressive cut stone fireplace with tall stone mullion windows overlooking the garden. Walking down the huge high staircase one can imagine the history in this house in days gone by.

There are two double bedrooms again with the lovely windows and a fireplace, with built in wardrobes. A smaller pretty middle bedroom provides ample single use.

The present owner has further improved the house by installing full central heating with a new combi boiler and added a useful downstairs cloakroom/WC

The garage is adjacent to the house and has a new storage floor for all those garage and garden effects we all seem collect.

A further feature of The Manor are the large well kept landscaped gardens on two levels which are maintained all year round and can be enjoyed at any time of year without the toil of having to do it yourself.

Within the grounds is a tiny church chapel which is used occasionally for services

Viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the property

To summarise Number Two offers: Entrance Porch - Sitting/Dining Room - Kitchen - Cloakroom - Three Bedrooms - Bathroom - Period Features throughout - Garage - Communal Grounds - Coastal Views.

The price for this house is £285,000 Freehold and can be viewed via the sole agents Fortnam Smith & Banwell (Charmouth) Contact the office on 01297-560945.

GRAB A PARKING SPACE!

As the chance of getting your hands on a dedicated parking bay in Lyme Regis is as rare as hens' teeth - Lyme Regis Town Council has the answer with a parking space available, for private or business use, off the driveway leading into Lister Gardens from Cobb Road and by the Hix Oyster & Fish House. A locking bollard will be supplied and fitted prior to letting.

This parking space will be let from 1st September 2010 until 31st March 2014 on an annual rent plus vat with a midpoint review built into the lease. Quarterly payments in advance will be accepted. Don't miss the opportunity for your car to share with celebs, local or otherwise, one of the best views in Lyme.

Please submit your tender (annual rent plus vat) in a sealed envelope marked "Lister Parking Bay" to the address below by first post on Wednesday 18th August 2010. For more information contact: The Town Clerk,

Peppers School of Motoring now covering West Dorset

IT'S ONE of the biggest things in our lives. Everyone wants to do it – many just can't wait. It gives us freedom and independence and has the potential to change our lives like little else. And no-one forgets who taught them...

Established in the mid 90's, Peppers School of Motoring is a Devon based company who has helped thousands of people learn to drive. Our excellent reputation is the back bone of our success and James Thomson is now bringing it to your area.

We believe that learning should be fun friendly and relaxed, and our rates are competitive too, with the first six lessons for just five pounds each and discounts available for block bookings.

To find out how James can get you behind the wheel, give Peppers a call on 0800 026 9165 or visit

Higher performance, lower consumption – The new cl 63 AMG

The new CL 63 AMG marks the start of a new chapter in the "AMG Performance 2015" drive strategy: Mercedes-AMG is continuing this impressive story and is meeting its promise to continuously improve fuel consumption and reduce emissions of new models with the new engine/transmission combination – while reaching new heights with the central AMG brand value of "performance".

According to Ola Källenius, head of Mercedes-AMG GmbH: "We are heading into a new era with the CL 63 AMG: for the first time we have combined spray-guided direct petrol injection with biturbocharging and the stop/start system. Together with the AMG SPEEDSHIFT MCT 7-speed sports transmission, we have improved fuel consumption and reduced emissions significantly – while at the same time increasing output and torque."

Together with the AMG SPEEDSHIFT MCT 7-speed sports transmission, the new AMG 5.5-litre V8 biturbo engine will play a significant role in the Mercedes-AMG model strategy over the coming year. The new engine/transmission combination marks a further milestone in the successful history of Mercedes-AMG, which began back in 1967.

Direct petrol injection and twin turbocharging

Designated internally as the M157, the new V8 engine is a prime example of efficiency and features a whole host of impressive technological highlights: for the first time Mercedes-AMG is taking advantage of direct petrol injection with spray-guided combustion and piezo injectors. This technology enables improved fuel economy thanks to higher thermodynamic efficiency, which in turn leads to lower exhaust emissions. AMG has combined the spray-guided combustion with biturbocharging. Other highlights of the innovative, original eight-cylinder engine from Affalterbach include full aluminium crankcase, four-valve technology with variable intake valve timing, air/water charge air cooling, generator management and also standard start/stop function. Compared with the AMG 6.3-litre naturally aspirated V8 engine with a displacement of 6208 cc, the new AMG 5.5-litre V8 biturbo engine achieves all this with a displacement of 5461 cc.

This high-tech package leads to a high output and torque yield, together with fuel consumption figures that are unrivalled in the competitive line-up. The AMG 5.5 litre V8 biturbo engine develops a peak output of 544 hp and maximum torque of 800 Nm. In conjunction with the AMG Performance package these figures are increased to 571 hp and 900 Nm. A look at the performance diagrams shows that no other engine in this output class achieves the figures delivered by the new AMG biturbo. The major difference between the two performance classes is an increase in the maximum charge pressure from 1.0 to 1.3 bar. In addition, the engine cover of the CL 63

AMG with the AMG Performance package comes with high-quality carbon-fibre applications.

Quantum leap: fuel consumption improvement of 38 per cent

With an fuel consumption of 26.9 mpg, the new CL 63 AMG is 7.4 mpg more economical than the previous model powered by the naturally aspirated AMG 6.3-litre V8 – despite an increase in maximum power of 19 hp and 46 hp respectively, and in torque of 170 and 270 Nm. Engine specialists consider this achieved fuel saving of more than 25 percent to be nothing less than a quantum leap. CO2 emissions have also been significantly reduced: at 244 grams per kilometre, the figure is 29 percent lower than for the previous model. Both performance variants have identical fuel consumption and CO2 figures.

With figures like these, the new CL 63 AMG is not only considerably better than all its competitors, but also more fuel-efficient than much less powerful cars in this segment.

Clean engine technologies power Toyota leadership on CO2 emissions

Toyota's environmental leadership in offering motorists cleaner, more efficient cars has been confirmed by the latest industry-wide survey by Clean Green Cars. Its independent analysis of the average CO2 emissions from vehicles sold in the UK during the first half of this year show that Toyota continues to outperform all other manufacturers, improving its figures to 124.49g/km – an improvement of 6.71 per cent on the same period last year.

This compares to an average 145.14g/km for the UK new car market as a whole.

Already well below the mandatory 130g/km target set by the European Union for 2012, the level achieved by Toyota reflects the impact of both its Hybrid Synergy Drive full hybrid technology, featured in Prius and Auris hybrid, and the application of Toyota Optimal Drive across its petrol and diesel powered models.

Toyota Optimal Drive covers a wide range of improvements to engine and transmission design and engineering that have cut fuel consumption and emissions and reduced mechanical losses with no compromise in performance. The introduction of Dual VVT-i advanced variable valve timing, engine stop-start technology and components that weigh less and are more compact has had a direct impact on CO2 output. Prius adds an extra dimension to the results, its full hybrid powertrain delivering a segment-best 89g/km.

Clean Green Cars' data are weighted against new vehicle registrations, and thus give a more accurate picture of the environmental impact of each manufacturer's entire model range. Toyota is confident of even further improvements in its CO2 performance thanks to the launch of its new British-built Auris hybrid, the first full-hybrid family hatchback, with emissions from just 89g/km.

The full Clean Green Cars' data tables can be seen at <http://www.cleangreen-cars.co.uk/co2>

All new A7 sportback opens more doors for Audi

THE sought-after Audi Sportback formula can now be enjoyed on an even grander scale in the all new A7 Sportback, which in a similar vein to its A5 namesake discreetly integrates saloon car versatility and hatchback practicality into an elegant premium coupe silhouette. By reinterpreting the concept for the larger executive class, the A7 Sportback will project the Vorsprung durch Technik brand into yet another new segment when it joins the UK range as its 35th member in January 2011, priced from £42,925.

As befits its positioning as an unashamedly luxurious yet also distinctly driver-oriented five-door performance coupe, the new A7 Sportback will initially offer a choice of four FSI petrol and TDI engines delivering exhilarating pulling power with limousine-like polish. The naturally aspirated 204PS 2.8-litre FSI and supercharged 300PS 3.0-litre TFSI petrol units will be complemented by two versions of the acclaimed 3.0-litre TDI in 204PS and 245PS forms.

For the first time in Audi models at this level, these will be combined with the rapid-shifting seven-speed S tronic twin-clutch sports transmission wherever quattro four-wheel-drive is installed. The quattro all-wheel-drive system appears in latest generation form with 40%:60% rear bias and featuring the crown gear differential first seen in the RS 5, which can vary torque distribution between the front and rear axles even more widely for even greater agility.

The Audi drive select adaptive dynamics system will be fitted as standard to all models, enabling the driver to fine tune steering weighting, throttle response and transmission shift points at the touch of a button. The keenest performance enthusiasts will also be able to specify the optional quattro sport differential enabling torque transfer between the rear wheels, which has been much praised in the S4 and RS 5 for the even greater handling adjustability it brings.

Start-stop for all engines

Drivers with a greater bias towards economy and long distance comfort will also be well catered for by the A7 Sportback. The latest direct injection technology puts its engine range at the forefront of efficiency, and all four units also combine innovative Audi thermal management, energy recuperation during coasting and braking and the now familiar engine start-stop function.

With the added benefit of new engine load-reducing electromechanical power steering, and the fuel-sparing, torque converter-free Audi multitronic continuously variable automatic transmission fitted as standard to front-wheel-drive versions, fuel economy of up to 53.3mpg, and CO2 of as little as 139g/km is possible if the 3.0 TDI (204PS) is specified.

Economy can also be further optimized when the standard satellite navigation system is upgraded to MMI navigation plus, the detailed route data from which can be used to factor corners into the automatic transmission's shift strategy and avoid unnecessary, fuel-sapping gear changes. The optional adaptive cruise control and adaptive light swivelling cornering light systems are also influenced by feedback from the navigation unit.

To reduce power usage still further, and give the A7 Sportback an even more imposing look, customers can also specify extremely energy efficient all-LED headlights at extra cost. These units with their incredibly distinctive, almost daylight-like beams, incorporate special cornering, all-weather and motorway light configurations.

A7 Sportback debut for new head-up display

For the first time in a production Audi, a 'head-up' display will be available at extra cost in the A7 Sportback. The sophisticated system will project key information, including economy and speed data and navigation routing onto the windscreen so that it appears to float at a distance of around 2.5 metres ahead of the driver.

Another key option that is new to Audi models of this size is the park assist system. Using ultrasonic sensors that detect parallel and horizontal parking spaces, the system can completely take over the steering function when parking at the touch of a button, leaving the driver responsible only for throttle and brake application as required.

Among the more indulgent options available are comfort seats with heating, cooling and massaging functions, acoustic glazing, supple leather trimming for the centre console, a 15-speaker Bang & Olufsen audio system with 1,300 watts of power, TV reception and various connectivity upgrades for the MMI system.

SAILING

World's top sailors head to Weymouth

MANY of the world's top sailors have entered the Skania Sail for Gold Regatta to be held at the Weymouth and Portland National Sailing Academy next month.

The event, the fifth and final leg of the ISAF Sailing World Cup, taking place between Monday, August 9th and Saturday 14th, has attracted over 800 competitors from 53 countries including many World, European and Olympic champions, some of whom are returning to Olympic class sailing after a break for events such as the Volvo Ocean Race and America's Cup.

Triple Olympic gold and silver medallist Ben Ainslie announced his entry this week to compete in his Finn nearly two years to the day that he secured his third Olympic gold in Beijing.

"I think Skandia Sail for Gold is a really important regatta for me to attend to not only check in with where the rest of the Finn fleet are, and what developments have taken place since I've been away, but also to familiarise myself with the venue and conditions as I've actually not raced an Olympic Class boat at Weymouth and Portland for about five or six years.

"I have to accept I'm not going to be 100 per cent race ready and Finn fit or at my ideal racing weight, but the benefits of competing far outweigh any frustrations I may experience as long as I'm realistic, and possibly more importantly, other people are realistic about what I can achieve on such limited preparation," said Ainslie.

Current ISAF Rolex World Sailors of the year Torben Grael (BRA) and Anna Tunnicliffe (USA) are also set to compete at this event.

Grael, a five time Olympic medallist has recently returned to the Star. His last Olympic appearance was in Athens in 2004, and most recently he skippered Ericsson 4 to victory in the 2008/09 edition of the Volvo Ocean Race.

He will be competing in the highly competitive

Star class, where he secured bronze at the World Championships in Rio earlier this year. In Weymouth he and fellow crew Marcelo Ferreira will line up alongside current World Champions and Beijing gold medallists, Skandia Team GBR's Iain Percy and Andrew Simpson.

With a gold medal in the Laser Radial Class from Beijing under her belt, Anna Tunnicliffe is back competing both on her Radial in 2010 and also lining up in the fiercely competitive Women's Match Racing class at Weymouth.

Commenting ahead of the event, Anna said, "I'm very excited to come to Weymouth. We had a great time last year and it was such good sailing. I think the venue and sailing area are great, what more could we want! The racing will be close, but if we sail smart and minimize the mistakes then we have a good chance at doing well overall".

Other notable British entries include double Olympic gold medallist Sarah Ayton competing in the 470 with crew Saskia Clark; they recently won the last ISAF Sailing World Cup event in Kiel and have high hopes for a podium finish.

In the RS:X class, Beijing Bronze medallist Bryony Shaw will be looking for a good performance on home waters. However she will have to keep an eye over her shoulder for recently crowned RS:X silver medallist at the Volvo Youth Sailing ISAF World Championships Izzy Hamilton.

World and Olympic Laser champion Paul Goodison will be looking to make his mark in the largest fleet of the event (160 entries so far), whilst recently crowned World Champions in the Paralympic Skud class Alexandra Rickman and Niki Birrell are looking forward to taking on the competition.

"Racing on the Olympic courses will be very interesting for us, it will be an opportunity to see what the competition is like on the future 2012 site and we can't wait to take on the rest of the world on home turf!"

The international field is a depth of talent including Australian 470 Beijing gold medal-winning crew Malcolm Page, fresh from winning the World Championships with Mathew Belcher, Olympic veteran and quadruple Olympic medallist Robert Scheidt (BRA), and recently crowned Women's 470 World Champions Lisa Westerhof and Lobke Berkhout (NED). Claire Leroy (FRA) and crew, currently ranked third overall in the ISAF Sailing World Cup Women's Match Racing standings will be battling it out with just one point separating the top three boats led by Skandia Team GBR's Lucy Macgregor and crew.

Elsewhere the Finn class is equally as close, with just seven points separating the top three sailors. Britain's Ed Wright will be looking to defend his ISAF Sailing World Cup title, but with Finn heavyweights including Beijing silver medallist Zach Railey (USA), Ivan Kljakovic Gaspic (CRO), Jonathan Lobert (FRA) and Ben Ainslie's return to the circuit, it is clear there will be a well fought battle for the overall title.

Giants devour Sharks

SOUTH DORSET GIANTS 44 DEVON SHARKS 42

RUGBY LEAGUE: INSPIRED by the presence of former Aussie international Brad Davis in their side, the Giants toppled the Rugby League South West region league leaders, but they had to wait until the final minute of the game to snatch the victory, writes IDRIS MARTIN.

Player-manager Dave Allan described the match as: "The best game of rugby of either code, union or league, that has been seen at Monmouth Avenue in recent history."

With time almost up the Giants' British Army player, Fijian Bobo Isaiah, twisted and turned his way past the Sharks defence for the third time in the contest to touchdown and tie the scores at 42 points all.

Up stepped outside half Tim Peplow, who, under extreme pressure, slotted the conversion to record a victory for his team that they just about deserved.

Allan added that having the former Castleford rugby league player Davis, who also coached at Bath rugby union club in the side, inspired his team to raise their game to a level that they had never achieved before to match the table toppers.

Davis, despite his 42 years on this planet, gave a master class of rugby, orchestrating the youngsters alongside him like a maestro conducting an orchestra to lead them to a famous victory.

Isaiah banked a hat trick of tries with another three coming from Dan Brown, and Davis also touched down making it seven.

Peplow kicked six conversions and two penalties to seal the Giants best result since the club was formed four years ago.

LYME REGIS BOWLS WITH PAUL MOFFITT

LYME MEN GET TO COUNTY CUP FINAL

THE men have won through to the final of the County Cup. This, I believe, is a feat that the club have not managed before and there is a sense of euphoria about the place.

The final will take place on Sunday, September 5th against Poole Park and it is hoped that a large contingent will come and support the 'lads' in their quest to wrest the cup.

One fly in the ointment is the fact that this date coincides with the club's internal finals, so it has to be hoped that a compromise can be found. Over to you committee!

In a nail biting game against Dorchester, fought both at home and away, Lyme were able to nudge home with nine points to spare.

A check is kept on the score at either venue by surreptitious use of mobile phones.

Elsewhere, Lyme 'A' fared badly away to Melcombe Regis giving away all 10 points, no score cards to hand, whilst the Championship side managed six points against Poole Park, who else, scraping a win by a single shot.

The Ladies nearly slipped up against Swanage but, thanks to a resounding win by Ann Allmans rink they were able to secure six points and keep their noses in front of the chasing pack in Division Two. In the Edna Paisley League the ladies kept up their good run with all the points against Bridport Red.

Meanwhile, Lyme W2 came unstuck against Wellworthy in the Percy Baker losing by three shots and recording their first loss of the season.

Saturday saw the return friendly against Den Teignmouth when the theme was Pirates. Most players entered into the spirit of the event, our Club Captain Brian Parsons being indistinguishable from Keith Richards.

RESULTS

● Dorset Men's Championship: Lyme 45 Poole Park 44 - J Eaton, S Pomeroy, B Ratlenbury, P Pomeroy 17-12; B Gillett, C Barber, K Hickman, P Moffitt 9-14; G Stockley, D Meylan, P Eagles, M Preston 19-18.

● Dorset Ladies, Division Two: Lyme 64 Swanage 56 - J Moffitt, M Gillett, J Parsons, K Clissold 20-26; H Dowling, D Courtenay-Smith, N Stephens, C Barber 15-23; J Wells, J Perry, J Kesterton, A Allman 29-7.

● Percy Baker: Lyme W2 29 Wellworthy 32 - R Edwards, R Winterborne, P Moffitt 15-16; R Richardson, P Eagles, D Meylan 14-16.

● Edna Paisley Lyme 31 Bridport Red 22. Y Moody, J Beavis, J Kesterton 19-11; P Cole, J York, J Parsons 12-11.

● Friendlies: Lyme Ladies 61 Chardstock 32 - K Smith, M Gillett, C Barber 20-13; J Moffitt, S Wood, J Parsons 18-9; H Dowling, S Applebee, N Stephens 23-10.

Lyme 134 Den Teignmouth 97 - D Read, T Payne, B Gillett, Chris Barber 25-8; P Cole, D Wood, N Benson, P Moffitt 21-12; G Broom, S Dowling, J Parsons, S Rowe 23-21; J Beavis, M Gillett, J Beadsley, Chas Barber 23-16; H Dowling, J Moffitt, R Winterborne, E Skeemer 27-13; S Wood, D Courtenay-Smith, E Rodgers, B Parsons 15-26.

LASTLY, but by no means least, Lyme won the Jubilee Cup by beating opposition from Chardstock, Seaton, Sidmouth, South Petherton, Crewkerne, Axminster and Queen Camel.

The winning rink was M Clark, J Beadsley, R Winterborne and P Moffitt with a score of plus 23.

WEYMOUTH SPEEDWAY

National League WEYMOUTH 49 PLYMOUTH 41

WEYMOUTH Weyline Wildcats beat South West neighbours Plymouth Devils with a much improved team performance in Saturday night's National League fixture at the Wessex Stadium 49-41.

James Cockle led the way for the Wildcats with Tom Brown back to form and a solid debut for Adam McKinna all bode well for the Radipole Lane side.

Bekker and McKinna combined for the perfect start for the Wildcats in the first heat, holding back the Devils' returnee to the National league Nicki Glanz.

Richard Andrews took the second heat from Devils pair Jaimie Pickard and Ben Reade after Luke Chessell fell on the last turn.

The following three heats were shared affairs with ex-Cat Matt Bates taking the third heat from Tom Brown and Gary Cottham after a clever cut up the inside of the Wildcats pairing.

The experienced Mark Simmonds kept Cockle and Chessell at bay in the fourth heat, while Glanz won his only race of the night with an inside pass over Brown and Cottham in the fifth heat with the scores at 17-13 in favour of the Wildcats.

The Devils hit in with a 5-1 in the sixth heat with Simmonds and Pickard combining following a fall from Bekker on the last turn while in second position to level the scores.

Cockle and Andrews hit back with a heat advantage in the re-run seventh heat to go two points up after Bates fell, Cockle getting the verdict on the line over Stephens.

Shared heat in the next two with McKinna grabbing a debut win over Pickard and Gough followed by Simmonds taking the flag over Brown and Cottham.

The Devils again levelled the scores in the re-run heat 10 with Seemond Stephens taking the honours on the line over Bekker after McKinna took a tumble.

Cockle cut up the inside of Glanz to combine with Andrews again for a heat advantage in heat 11 for the Wildcats to go two up. Brown and Chessell took maximum points in heat 12 putting the Cats six up over Bates who missed the start and Pickard, 39-33.

Bekker took another fall while in third place and Cockle a 15 metre handicap for a tapes offence in heat 13 where Simmonds and Glanz hit back in the re-run to bring the Devils within two points of the Wildcats.

Heat 14 saw the meeting won by Cottham and Andrews, Stephens slowed down while leading on the last lap allowing the Wildcats pair through for maximum points.

Cockle and McKinna took the heat advantage in heat 15 for a result of 49-41 and three league points after Glanz demolished the tapes.

VOLLEYBALL

THIS weekend sees the 28th record breaking year of the Weymouth Beach Classic Volleyball Championships featuring over 100 top world, European and national players.

The prestigious three-day event starts on Friday (July 30th) where a magnificent show court surrounded by specially constructed beach grandstand seating (free to the public) also includes nine tournament courts, live commentary, musical intervals and a volleyball trade village.

Once again Britain's very best will be competing alongside champions from around the globe; the competitors include past and reigning national champions and a host of Great Britain players from the national indoor volleyball scene.

There are also a number of international teams including France, Germany, Italy and Switzerland.

Weymouth and Portland Borough Council, Culture, Tourism and Community Facilities Brief Holder, Cllr Roger Allen said: "We are delighted to have wonderful support from the RAF for the 4th year and the great partnership of the local volleyball club and the Borough Council Events team.

"Fierce competition, fabulous atmosphere and massive crowds make this one of Britain's and Weymouth's top beach events of the year."

The 'Pzazz Dancers' will once again be performing at this year's event and following the success of last year's performance in Weymouth, the Volleyball England Beach Tour committee have requested that they also appear at both the Sandbanks and Bournemouth events.

Friday (30th) see the championship launch at noon with the Clash of the Stars followed by the qualifying rounds.

The men's and womens championships take place on Saturday (31st) between 9am and 7pm and Sunday (Aug 1st) 9am until 5pm which culminates with the finals from 3pm.

LYME REGIS GOLF CLUB

WITH STEVE PERCIVAL & ELLIE LANGFORD

Hardy A Team v Ferndown

THE Lyme A team took on their formidable opponents Ferndown with hopes of a home victory but not overly confident of a result in their favour.

Despite the home location to their advantage they knew that they would all have to play to their full potential to achieve a win.

Ian Mudford gained a 8-7 win to overwhelm his Ferndown opponent with five birdies in 11 holes to achieve a 5-4 win.

Mike Mudford also won 5-4, whilst David Fidge was against tougher opposition but achieved a 2-1 victory.

The 3-2 win achieved by Alan Beer also proved to be a tougher result to achieve.

Meanwhile Chris Denning and Bob Taylor both halved their matches.

With honours even up to the last captain, Rob Clapp knew that he had to perform exceptionally well on the last hole to achieve his individual win.

Unfortunately he narrowly failed to do so, to finally lose by one.

However, all in all it was an exceptional result and a fine team performance. In the end Lyme ran out convincing 6-2 winners with some exceptional individual performances to achieve that result.

Junior Golf

THE Lyme junior team took on Came Down at home on Saturday, July 24th.

With the course wet after some overnight rain and the fairways still firm and running well, some good performances were well on the cards.

And so it proved to be with some close matches and good scores being achieved. Jolly Bugg (playing off 12) achieved a notable 3-2 victory as did David Lyon (13). Kai-To-Li (16) struggled manfully to achieve a half in his close fought match.

All of the other matches were also close contests but went in favour of the Came Down visitors.

Richie Yorke (6) giving three shots went down 3-2 to an opponent who scored a gross 73 and managed to putt anything within 16 feet of the pin.

George Seed achieved a birdie on the 17th to get back in contention but lost on the final hole to an opponent who drove the green.

George Yorke (12) also lost to a formidable opponent 2-1. With this home leg lost Lyme know that they will have a tough contest on their hands in the second away leg of this competition on July 3rd but they are optimistic of achieving a good result

Help For Heroes Stableford

AFTER some overnight mist and rain the Lyme course was in excellent condition for this stableford competition in aid of the Help For Heroes charity.

Although the final results are still awaited there were some excellent scores aided by the fast running freshly cut greens.

In particular the ever improving George Seed, playing with the new club champion, performed an incredible round of golf typified by a birdie putt on the last to achieve a gross 75 and 42 Stableford points.

As a result George has now achieved single figures and will be playing off 9 in his next competition. Well done, George.

Ladies Pros Benefit Stableford

THE Pros Benefit was played in perfect conditions so it was no wonder that some excellent scores were recorded. All money collected goes to the club professional.

Results: 1st, Hanna Jacobsen, 43 pts; 2nd, Julie Duke, 42 pts; 3rd, Diana Dick, 40 pts; 4th, Jenny Scott, 38 pts; 5th, Jean Moss, 38 pts; 6th, Brenda Brown, 37 pts. The top six players all reduced their handicaps.

Sophie Keech played in the South West Ladies Championship at China Fleet, Saltash where she and two other girls broke the course record with a 72 gross and came first, on count-back, in the morning and in the afternoon scored 74 giving her second place overall for the best gross score.

The following two days she played in the knockouts where, on the second day, she lost on the 18th.

Dorset won the County Challenge Salver awarded for the three best gross scores - Sophie (146), Alice Plum (149), Kerry-Ann Haskell (150); Sophie now plays off a handicap of 3.

PARLEY TOO GOOD FOR DORCHESTER

DORSET FUNERAL PLAN LEAGUE
Premier League*Parley 235-3 beat Dorchester 1st XI 234-9 by seven wickets

DORCHESTER found Raj Naik in scintillating form in their top of the table clash with Parley which saw them replaced at the top by their East Dorset rivals.

Naik was responsible for the collapse of the county town's batting performance that saw them slump from 191-2 to finish their innings on 234-9 with Naik snaring 5-24 off his ten overs.

The Parley all rounder, who was dropped from the Dorset side for their last match against Herefordshire, showed manager Sean Walbridge what he was missing, by then steering his side to victory with an unbeaten 92 not out.

Dorchester captain Martyn Richards was full of praise for Naik's performance, and feels that if they had managed to capture his wicket then his side might have gone on to win.

"We just couldn't get the better of him. That's twice he's played us and has scored around 150 without being out. He batted really well and never really gave us any chances. It seemed the longer he batted the harder it was for us to dismiss him. I think we were two wickets away from winning the match.

"He was also the difference between us getting a score of 300 instead of 234. Although Neil Somerson (4-47) took the first four wickets, we were able to score freely off him, but we found it hard to get Raj away, and as a result we got ourselves out."

Dave Maslen and Pete Moxom gave Dorchester a solid start after being asked to bat and put on 80 before Moxom went caught and bowled for 36. Lee Haynes then helped Maslen add 96 for the second wicket before Haynes (52) went the same way. Maslen's dismissal for 76 saw the start of the Dorchester collapse and when Rob Waite became Somerson's third caught and bowled victim, Naik took over.

Andy Mead had Reece (14) caught by Paul Tweddle and Elliot caught by Steve Gerety to leave Parley on 50-2, and another wicket or two then would have probably given Dorchester victory, but with Robbie Gunn (68) growing in confidence alongside Naik, Parley reached their target with four overs to spare.

Mead (3-50) was the only successful Dorchester bowler, but both Dan Belt (0-39 from ten overs) and Xenon Ellis (0-29 from seven) bowled economically.

"We needed one of our top three to bat through really to give support. They all got started but disappointingly didn't go on, but having said that we bat well down and our middle order didn't do the business," added Richards.

"Next week's game against Poole Town is now a very important match if we are to have any chance of the championship."

Premier LeagueWeymouth 1st XI 224-8 beat Ferndown
Wayfarers 223-8 by two wickets

WITH three consecutive defeats behind them, Weymouth got a much needed victory in their relegation battle with Ferndown Wayfarers, but it went down to the last ball.

Having restricted the visitors to 223-7 after they had raced to 89 without loss, it appeared a relatively easy task as skipper Paul Payne and Sean Fitzgerald produced a third wicket partnership of 138 after they had slipped to 6-2 in reply.

However when Dean Elsworth (3-17) dismissed Fitzgerald (41), Dean Janaway (19) and Will McKay (0) in quick succession and then Payne, having reached his ton holed out; defeat looked a possibility with Weymouth needing 20 in the last five overs with two wickets left.

Laurie Whyte and Dave Trotter eased them towards the target but they still needed eight off the last over and two for victory off the last ball.

Whyte (10 not out) having played the ball to mid-wicket had to dive full-length to beat the returning ball as they scrambled the second run to earn a valuable 19 points.

Payne particularly was relieved. Annoyed at himself having holed out at 101 with the game delicately poised, he was full of praise for Whyte and Trotter.

"They both held their nerve and were superb in the circumstances."

James Stanton (65) and Lee Dunham (39) had given Ferndown a great start, but the introduction of Fitzgerald (2-31) and Whyte (0-29) slowed their progress, and with Andrew Falloon (2-24) and Dan Hutchens (2-45) also contributing, Weymouth gave themselves a chance which Whyte and Trotter took.

Division OneBeaminster 1st XI 144 all out lost to Broadstone 2nd XI 225 all out by 81 runs

BROADSTONE'S openers Lee Hanratty (61) and Barry Seymour (81) won this match for the visitors with an opening stand of 159, and although the Beaminster bowlers then secured five bowling points by taking ten wickets for just 66 runs the damage had been done.

Broadstone won the toss and elected to bat on an excellent batting wicket with a fast outfield, and their openers played positively and scored runs freely. They had few problems seeing off the new ball and looked in determined mood. First change bowlers Ross Baker (0-41) and Mark Barber (2-44) were treated with disdain as Broadstone looked to amass a huge total.

It wasn't until Joe Hawkins and Nick David (1-33) were introduced that Beaminster's fortunes changed. Hawkins took the first three wickets including both opening batsmen, varying his pace well and bowling a good line and length. Danger man Simon Leadbetter (17) was well caught by Hawkins off Jones to leave Broadstone struggling on 166-4 having lost 4 wickets for just seven runs.

Improved fielding and better bowling from the returning Barber resulted in Broadstone losing regular wickets as they limped to their final total of 225 all out off of 48.4 overs, with Hawkins finishing with 4-27 and holding three catches, whilst Simon Jones bagged 2-34.

Although Chris Park was dropped off of the first ball off Beaminster's reply, Broadstone didn't have to wait long as Park was bowled in the second over before Fred Everitt (3) was trapped leg before. David (9) soon went followed by Jones and Dan Hillier, both for ducks, as brilliant opening bowler 16-year-old John Burns claimed 5-14 in his first spell of seven overs, swinging the ball with pace and terrorising the batsmen.

Richard Runyard (27) and Hawkins (27) held Beaminster's innings together with Runyard playing aggressively, and although Beaminster's tailed wagged, the damage had been done and they had to settle for batting points.

Will Everitt and Huse Rathbone batted well together and put on 51 for the ninth wicket to make Broadstone wait for their victory, but it was the returning Burns who took the wicket of Rathbone (18) and when Everitt (26) soon followed Beaminster were all out in the 37th over for 144.

Division OneFerndown Wayfarers 2nd XI 182 all out lost to Weymouth 2nd XI 186-4 by six wickets

CAPTAIN John Ryan set up what eventually turned out to be a relatively easy victory over Ferndown Wayfarers 2nds.

At drinks it looked as if the hosts were heading for a target of 250 after S Rogers and N Alibhai had survived Neil Walton's excellent opening spell that had already accounted for P Stracey (6), trapped leg before, to stand at 120-1.

However Ryan brought himself on and it immediately paid dividends, with Faraj Ulhaq (1-30) removing Rogers (51), before Ryan (2-33) had Alibhai caught for 45 and then bowled J Brooke first ball to leave Wayfarers on 122-3.

The introduction of Joe Weld (3-29) and the returning Walton (3-26) saw Wayfarers collapse to 182 all out with only S Armstrong (26) showing any resistance.

Ryan's team sporting seven players aged 18 and under responded to the task, and after Kieron Womble (24) had helped Simon Mitchem, with a superb 77, put on an opening stand of 65, Weld (45) helped add 99 for the second wicket to set up the victory.

Ryan said of his charges: "Considering we are such a young team they showed great composure, and are a great bunch of youngsters. Neil Walton bowled beautifully early on without reward. He was swinging and seaming the ball at will and bowls with so much confidence.

"Joe Weld also showed what an asset he is both with the ball and the bat. The wicket was starting to break up and so Simon (Mitchem), Kieron (Womble) and Joe had to be very watchful, but they batted with great patience and were a credit."

Division TwoDorchester 2nd XI 102 all out lost to Branksome 222 all out by 120 runs

A DISAPPOINTING batting display saw Dorchester 2nd's slip to a heavy defeat against second place Branksome.

Captain Ian Sibley was disappointed with his team's display, particularly their batting.

"We appear to either bat well or very poorly, nothing in between, and this was a poor display.

"We didn't bowl terribly well either and gave away too many boundaries. I think 180 would have been a more realistic target had we bowled and fielded better."

All Branksome's batsmen scored runs with Joe Power (3-51) the most successful Dorchester bowler. Sibley (2-29 from eight overs) and John Legg (1-34) also bowled well and economically.

In reply only Colin Edney with 35 showed any form with the bat.

Division ThreeBridport 1st XI 99 all out lost to Poole Town 2nd XI 228-9 by 129 runs

BRIDPORT crashed to their ninth defeat in ten games and now look likely to be relegated for the third consecutive season.

Following win in the first two games of the campaign, their only success has been against bottom side Suttoners 2nd's.

Leaders Poole Town 2nd's scored 228-9 in the allotted overs, but Bridport failed to get anywhere near that, being dismissed for just 99 all out.

Division ThreeMartinstown 145-8 beat Portland
Red Triangle 142 all out by two wickets

MARTINSTOWN won a tense, low scoring match against Portland Red Triangle, with Liam Banfield and Matt Rimmer seeing the home side home with some big hitting.

Martinstown inserted Portland, but the opening pair of Chris Leake (11) and Dave Adkins (8) started confidently before they fell to opening bowlers Stuart Fry (2-27) and Chris Read (2-56).

With 40 extras (24 wides) top scoring, only Callan Laws (22), Elliott Sawyer (14) and George Linley-Munro (12) reached double figures as Portland were dismissed for 142 all out.

Danny Dancer (3-18 from 10 overs) was the pick of the Martinstown bowlers, whilst Matt Camp's 2-14 off seven was also impressive.

Although the hosts lost Ed Nichols (9) leg before to Linley-Munro early on, Lee House (32) and Henry Lewis (36) added 63 for the second wicket.

However some good, tight bowling from Jon Dixon (3-29) and Scott Males (3-37) saw wickets tumble regularly, and at 120-8 the result was in the balance. However Banfield struck four 4's in his unbeaten 17, whilst Rimmer (7 not out) hit a six in his two scoring shots to give Martinstown victory by two wickets.

Division FourBroadstone 3rd XI 236 all out beat Beaminster 2nd XI 203 all out by 33 runs

BROADSTONE won the toss and decided to bat on their relatively small ground and got off to a flying start.

Some great bowling and fielding in the middle of the innings slowed the run rate up and for the first time this season Beaminster bowled a team out. Broadstone made 236.

Top performers with the ball were Haycon Edgeley 5 for 54, Stuart Lindsey 3 for 42 and both Ad Herring and Liam Annetts taking a wicket a piece!

Again, in reply, the top order failed and Beaminster struggled at the drinks break to 42 for 6. Great batting from 15-year-old Joe Singleton 62, Shaun Annetts 24, Stuart Lindsey 36 and Dickie Down 13 not out saw Beaminster reach a more than respectable 202 all out.

Division FiveWeymouth 3rd XI 108-3 beat Puddletown 106 all out by seven wickets

WEYMOUTH 3rds kept up their relentless pressure at the top with an easy seven wicket win over Puddletown, their tenth of the season.

Put into bat Puddletown failed to cope with another good bowling display with Sami Rathnayke (4-22) and Graham Puckett (3-27) both proving effective and economical from their 12 overs. They lost wickets regularly as they struggled to 106 all out.

In reply Weymouth lost both Stu Bowden and Al Sterling for ducks, but skipper Joe Trevett led the way to victory with an unbeaten 48 not out, whilst the experienced Dave Pearce helped him add 97 for the third wicket before succumbing on the cusp of victory for 40.

Division SixBlandford 3rd XI 135 all out lost to Abbotsbury 139-2 by eight wickets

WHAT a difference a week makes, but unlike last week when the batting failed after a good bowling performance, this time they were on form.

The first part of Saturday's game followed a very similar pattern to last week, with the Abbotsbury bowlers doing an excellent job.

An early wicket apiece for Grafton Straker and James Pretty put Blandford on the back foot and, though T. Haines with 34 and R. Oliver 29 kept them moving along, good performances from all the villager's bowlers restricted them to 135 all out, with Simon Pengelly (3-32), Simon Allen (3-42), Grafton Straker (2-35) and James Pretty (2-22) all contributing well.

After last week's debacle, and with both their usual openers absent, there was some trepidation before the Abbotsbury reply began, but Pengelly and Pretty soon blunted the Blandford attack with some excellent concentration before Pretty was caught in the slips for eight.

Pengelly continued his good work, picking off the bad balls and, riding his luck a little as three presentable chances were spurned in compiling a match-winning 67, with Robin Potter providing solid support to the end with 38 not out, leaving Ryan Beesley to notch the winning boundary as the Swans gained maximum points.

Division SixFerndown Wayfarers 4th XI 146 all out lost to Bridport 2nd XI 275-7 by 129 runs

SOLID top order batting and a good all round performance by Duane Gay earned Bridport a valuable victory in their battle to stay out of the relegation battle against bottom side Ferndown Wayfarers 4th's.

Winning the toss, Duane (35) and Rod Gay gave the visitors a solid start with a stand of 80. Rod (49) fell one short of his half century, but Toby Hall (58) did, and he and Jamie Dollman (32) and Will Gape (40) added good contributions in Bridport's 275-7 total.

Duane Gay was in good form with the ball as well as his 5-23 from 12 overs did most to ensure victory. Jack Walklett bagged a brace with Rod Gay (1-6 from five overs) and Dan White each getting a wicket.

Division SixDorchester 3rd XI 113-2 beat Weymouth
Longshots 112 all out by eight wickets

DORCHESTER 3rds maintained the pressure on the top two with a comprehensive win over Weymouth Longshots thanks to an unbeaten half century from Jae Miller.

Longshots fought back from the early loss of Neil Hardisty (4) bowled by Mat King (2-18) as Adam Jones (12) and Mark Hardy (30) plundered 48 runs in the next nine overs.

However captain Pete Tucker regained the initiative by bowling Jones with an inswinging Yorker, before Nick Beer had Hardy well caught at cover by Martyn Jones, and then bagged the visiting captain Mel West, brilliantly caught behind by Lewis Chutter.

The introduction of spin saw another three wickets for only 5 runs and Longshots collapse to 68-7.

Returning traveller Rhys Cole had Rob Hodges (10) stumped by Chutter before Sam Roles had Panjanalizdeh (1) by Tucker at cover before Cole snaffled a low catch at slip to dismiss Philpot.

Glen Kellman and Pete Worrall (15) added some useful runs but a superb piece of fielding from the diving King saw Worrall brilliant run before King returned to bowl Dan Fry.

In reply Miller and Chutter brought up their fifty run partnership in only the eighth over before Chutter (25) miss timed a pull shot. Ian Legg and Miller looked comfortable as they pulled and drove the ball with ease but a brilliant piece of fielding from Philpots saw Legg (14) run out by a direct hit.

Miller who hit eight fours and a six in his unbeaten 58 not out, and Rob Pering then clinched victory.

Pete Tucker said "It was a very good win especially after the very close encounter we had at Redlands earlier in the season. Mat King continued his excellent mid season form with the ball as did Nick Beer, both claiming vital wickets. Lewis Chutter capped a good performance behind the stumps with a fantastic diving catch which you normally only see that type of quality on TV.

"Special mention must go to Jae Miller who stepped right up to the mark and produced an excellent knock when it mattered. With only two players over the age of eighteen in the team, it sometimes can be lost on the importance of the senior head to keep cool under pressure and help the youngster's perform to the best of their ability. Jae certainly ticked all the boxes with his fine and mature innings."

Division Eight (S & W)Crewkerne 115-5 beat Martinstown
2nd 114 all out by five wickets

MARTINSTOWN went down to their fourth defeat of the season against second placed Crewkerne by five wickets.

LONGHAM GARDEN MACHINERY
SUNDAY DORSET CRICKET LEAGUE*Symene 196-9 beat Winton*Sports 2nd XI 190 all out by one wicket

SYMENE survived a late scare to bag a win that appears to dispel any relegations worries, although they nearly threw it away.

Winton's J May (27) and J Clark (38) put on 66 in just eight overs as they hammered Sam Challis and Ashley Nicholls around the ground.

Graham Bartlett dismissed Clark but Winton were still heading for a big total at 82-2 off 11 overs. It was the introduction of Colin Willcox (3-23 off 12 overs) and Marcel Grunschloss (0-12 off seven) that finally slowed their progress, and at 32 overs they had only added another 47 off 21 overs.

Despite M Clark top scoring with 56, the return of Nicholls (3-51) eventually saw Winton restricted to 190 all out.

Liam Toohill (1) went early in reply, but Willcox (45) and Challis (47) added 97 for the second wicket to set up what appeared an easy victory, particularly with Grunschloss (18) and Mark Tozer (38) adding 53 for the fifth wicket.

However with ten required to win panic set in, and with the last pair at the wicket and the scores tied, it took a big six from Bartlett to settle the match after M Clark had bagged 6-59.

FRIENDLYBroadwindsor 213-9 beat North*Perrott 201 all out by 12 runs

BROADWINDSOR eventually squeezed home with two balls to spare in their friendly with North Perrot.

Joe Hawkins top scored for the hosts with 64 and there were good contributions from Ross Baker (39) and Steve Phillips (23), although a number of batsmen got into double figures.

In reply North Perrot for whom P Ireland (57) and Grant (63) top scored, could have won it in the last over with some big hitting, but they didn't mainly due to Baker who nabbed 3-10.

Magpies undaunted by Palace visit

DORCHESTER TOWN 3 CRYSTAL PALACE 3

WILFRED Zaha spared Crystal Palace's blushes in an entertaining match that saw Dorchester Town put in another confident performance against the npower Championship side at The Avenue on Wednesday.

Substitute Zaha neatly slipped the ball under Regan Coward from close range following a superb one-two with another sub Kieron Cadogan in the 70th minute, as a virtually full strength Eagles side fought back from a two goal deficit to snatch a draw.

Dorchester, starting with Ryan Moss and Stuart Douglas up front, scored twice in the first half, and as on Saturday against Dagenham & Redbridge showed their more illustrious opponents scant respect.

Douglas, who is in talks with manager Ashley Vickers about a permanent contract at the club, showed his talent by getting in front of Pedro Branco and stooping low to head in James Coutts' cross at the near post on 13 minutes.

Jamie Gleeson then tested Julian Speroni with a 25-yard left foot shot that struck the Argentinian keeper on the chest.

Midway through the half Moss' header from a Ryan Hill corner was headed of the line by Calvin Andrew, before skipper Kevin Hill scored Dorchester's second, side-footing his namesake's free-kick home on the volley at the far post after Adam Barrett had fouled Steve Devlin wide on the right.

It took Palace 39 minutes to register a shot on goal but trialist Ty drove straight at Coward from 25-yards.

However there was no stopping their second effort three minutes later. Nathan Walker's header dropped to the unmarked Darren Ambrose, and the former Newcastle United player smashed a scorching drive over and beyond Coward from the edge of the box.

Crystal Palace levelled the match just before the hour when an unfortunate slip as he turned by Ryan Hill gave Ambrose a clear run on goal and he slipped the ball past the advancing Coward.

It looked like Palace might go on to dictate the match, but the Magpies roared back, and Mark Jermyn neatly controlled a left wing cross before feeding Walker who picked his spot from the edge of the box with a well placed shot.

After Zaha had levelled, Palace might have won the match with a blistering header from Patrick McCarthy from Ambrose's corner that crashed against the underside of the bar before being cleared.

BEES GIVE TERRAS A RUN FOR THEIR MONEY BRIDPORT 0 WEYMOUTH 0

DESPITE driving rain for much of the match and a lack of goals, there was still plenty of entertainment and some good individual performances for the large crowd to enjoy at St Mary's Field on Tuesday.

Weymouth, who will be playing Zamaretto League Premier Division football this season began the match as if they would overrun their Toolstation Western League Division One opponents, but once Darren Watts and Dan Wise got their act together they dictated large periods of the game.

Both sides created a number of chances that with better finishing should have brought goals despite good performances from Sam Filkins and Ashley Weeks between the sticks.

Filkins is on loan to Bridport from Dorchester Town whilst Jamie Fry recovers from a hand injury, and he produced an almost faultless display culminating in a tremendous one-handed save to claw Lewis Whyton's header over the bar with 15 minutes left.

Weeks came on as a second-half sub for Tom Manley, and also produced a confident display.

First he thwarted Chris Clarke, who had been converted to a striking role for the evening, when he was put through by Wise just after the hour.

Clarke seemed certain to score as he shot past Weeks as he closed him down, but the former Chickerell keeper stuck out his right foot to deflect the ball onto the post.

He then saved well from Watts' deflected shot before thwarting Clarke again by blocking his header from Wise's corner low down on the line. He then did well to hang on to Wise's powerful free kick from over 35 yards that thumped into his chest just minutes from the end.

Sam Charles showed more pace than he did whilst on loan at Bridport last season and used his strength well, and should have scored at least twice.

Early in the second half, for once he shrugged off Ryan Hayter who had an excellent match, but then fired across the goal beyond Filkins and unfortunately the far post.

Then when Filkins could only parry Ryan McCatchmey's shot, Charles lifted the ball over the top from almost on the line from the rebound.

Bridport paraded their new striker Ryan Dovell on his home debut, but the crowd didn't see much of him after he hurt his head on a pitchside post following a tackle from Matt Oldrin, who had reputedly signed non-contract forms for the Terras the day before.

The incident saw Dovell replaced by Roger Cummings, but after having his head bandaged, returned midway through the second half.

Weymouth had a let off soon after Dovell parted when Jamie Symes was quick to pounce after Matt Condliffe had miskicked his shot at goal.

Manley was down quick to deflect the ball up into the air but as it looped towards goal Oldrin was on hand to head the ball clear.

Cheol Min-Kim, on trial with the Terras, showed manager Ian Hutchinson that he could be an asset.

The former Bournemouth player showed a nice turn of speed and some nifty footwork, forcing Filkins to a save at his near post in the first half.

Of the two managers Trevor Senior will feel more pleased with his side's performance.

New season, but nothing changes at Huish Park

A PERSONAL VIEW by Stuart Broom

THE SIGHT of your new season ticket dropping through the letterbox brings joy to hundreds of thousands of football fans around the country at this time of year.

A new season is almost on us. Ten months of glorious excitement for the majority, as your favourite club battle for honours.

This year is going to be the one you've been waiting for, and whether you are a Chelsea or Charnmouth supporter you are looking forward to it with relish!

Mine came recently, and quite frankly I wondered why I bothered. As a Yeovil Town season ticket holder for over 30 years there have been some glorious times, none better than gaining Football League status in 2003.

There have been plenty of lows as well, the worst probably when it looked as if the club might fold and bucket collections were made to raise additional cash.

Like so many other fans around the country, regardless of the situation, I have always looked forward to better times next season.

Unfortunately I don't have that feeling this year! The Glovers stumbled through the last campaign, just avoiding relegation, mainly thanks to a number of loan players who bolstered the squad and the quality.

Among them Steven Caulker, who was part of the England U19s squad playing in the European Championships this last week. He showed maturity beyond his years and carried off nearly every end of season award.

Steven and the myriad of other loanees have now returned to their clubs and left behind a Glovers squad bereft of experience and quality.

As a season ticket holder I accept that the club has to be financially stable, and in no way am I suggesting that the chairman should go out and blow a lot of money the club doesn't have on star players.

My problem is with the management team. Terry Skiverton epitomised the character of so many Yeovil players before him with his bravery and never say die attitude on the pitch, but I seriously question his qualities as a manager.

OK he was the cheap option for Mr Fry, but the often dismal displays and management decisions that he made during the pst season I find hard to accept.

The signing of Scott Murray from Bristol City, supposedly the saviour of the club, became the most expensive subs seat warmer in the league.

His tactical nous; the failure to make a substitution in the home match against Colchester for example where they were trailing 1-0 and never looked like scoring, was a no brainer.

It appeared obvious to everyone bar Skiverton that any change must have been worth doing when you were as inept as Yeovil were that night.

I'm afraid he hasn't tempted me either so far he with the signing of four young players and a Bristol Rovers reject, and with just 10 days to go to the first league match against Leyton Orient the club has no goal-keeper.

I hope his assistant Nathan Jones will also be more restrained than he was last season. Vociferous as he is, his disgusting language aimed at the Southampton coach during their match at Huish in April appears to have gone unpunished by the board. I could hear his foul mouthed retort some 70 yards away.

What example is that to the young supporters, many sat just yards away, who look up to the players and officials and copy their ways. I wonder therefore whether I have made the right decision in renewing my season ticket. I hope so, because I also paid for my son's, and that would be a heavy price to pay for another unfulfilled season of dross.

Most rewarding season in Dorset & Wilts history

RUGBY UNION: Twin Counties Secretary Nick Dark was able to report at their recent AGM held at Salisbury Rugby Club, that whilst last season had been challenging, it had also been the most rewarding in the club's history.

The senior squad's record of having played and won five out of five, culminated in winning the RFU County Shield final at Twickenham by 36-26 against Leicestershire.

The under 20s went out of their RFU County Championship at the semi final stage to the eventual winners Yorkshire. The under 14 boys, under 15 boys and under 16 boys all went the entire season undefeated, while the under 17's won 2 and lost 2 as did the under 18's. The under 15 girls won the one game they played whilst their under 18 counterparts lost the one match they played.

Bournemouth won the Dorset and Wilts 1st XV cup, North Dorset took the 1st XV Vase and Swindon College were victorious in the 1st XV Plate. The Twin Counties 2nd team competitions went to Bournemouth (Cup) and Sherborne (Shield) with Bournemouth winning the 3rd team Cup competition.

Marlborough were the Dorset and Wilts Division One North league champions whilst Bridport took the Division One South honours. In Division Two North Pewsey Vale won promotion and in Division Two South Bournemouth were crowned league champions. Corsham and East Dorset respectively won the Division Three North and South titles both ending their season as league champions.

HUTCH NEEDS TO KEEP HIS NERVE

MANAGER Ian Hutchinson knew it was not going to be an easy task when he agreed to return to Weymouth Football Club.

After all the financial problems that the Terras have faced in recent months Hutch would have been hoping for a smoother start to the new season on the field.

With money tight he was never going to be able to go out and "splash the cash" on experienced players, and has to date mainly had to rely of players from Dorset Premier League clubs who have rallied to Hutch's call for local talent.

With a myriad of players, many with Football or Conference League experience looking for new clubs, Hutch was able to trial some in the first two matches against Torquay United and Crawley Town, but they have moved on looking for better, more permanent deals, something he is unable to do right now.

BY STUART BROOM

"There are a lot of players out there looking for clubs, and I have an agent friend of mine looking out for possible deals, but it is difficult with the financial restraints we have here.

However we have to be patient, and it maybe that we have to wait until the last minute to get the couple of more experienced heads that we need to help the younger players."

Hutch was as disappointed with the last two friendlies against Bridport and Portland United as he was pleased with the first two.

"It been a bit disappointing I must say, but it's not going to happen overnight. The local lads are the elite of the DPL, but are maybe a bit overawed by playing for the biggest side in the area.

"As a semi-professional club we do things differently than they have been used to, but at the end of the day they need to seize the opportunity. Maybe they are playing with a bit of fear being in awe of the club, but there's nothing to be fearful about."

There is no doubt that the players appeared to be looking for someone to dictate play and organise them against Bridport last week, and this is where a more experienced head would help.

Hutch was not relishing the thought of the idea of having to play again despite having kept himself fit. "I don't really want to put my boots on again, but if needs must I might have to," he said.

However the window of opportunity is still open until the season starts, and it may be a case of Hutch keeping his nerve and hoping a gem or two will turn up.
